Winter 2020 Classes and Events Schedule

First of all, I want to thank you all for your support! Despite the rough start with all of the flooding, 2019 ended up being a great year! I'm now teaching classes everywhere from Oswego, NY to Madrid, NY!!! I helped Oswego Friends of the Library raise $890 for their Children's classes at the library!! How exciting is that??? I also did a fundraiser for Madrid-Waddington High School's History Club Europe trip in Spring 2020 and we raised $630!!! Not too shabby!!

This summer marked my second year with the Sackets Art Center, where I started the Fantasy Art Show (hopefully the first of many) and was voted Vice President!!! I also handle all of the publicity and social media now. Woot!! Woot!!!

Also, I now have my inked paintings displayed at Focal Point Custom Frames on Coffeen Street, where I also work part-time! I get to talk art all day every day for the rest of my life now!!! At this point, it's just paintings to hang on your walls, some suncatchers and a few pillows for sale there. There is no space for the jewelry and glass at this point, but I'll let you know if anything changes. I still have my jewelry and glass at Artists at North Country Crossroads in Gouverneur, though. You should go check out Gari, the lovely lady who owns it. She's got some great stuff there!

In other non-inking news, I got the chance to intern with Art of Fire in Chaumont, NY. I got to spend the summer learning the art of glassblowing with Foster and Theda. They're here at their cottage from June to August, so you should definitely check them out! Foster will teach you how to blow glass ornaments, mugs, or several other things. If you give them a call, Theda will be more than happy to set you up with an appointment. Depending on my schedule, I'll be back there again this summer to help Foster make more of his intricate pieces. You can contact them at 240-620-6497.

~I can't believe this has become my life.~

Exciting INKED things for 2020:

I will be Featured Artist at Sackets Art Center in August.

We'll be having the 2nd Fantasy Art Show. I'm pretty proud of both, if I do say so myself!

So, come ink with me and check out my classes and events! I've put together a list through April 2020 for you. :) They are always subject to change, so check back on my Facebook or website on occasion. Hope to see you in my inking world this season!

Castle Queens Weekend: March 5 at Noon to March 8 at 11:00 am

This is Wench's Weekend! Several years ago, this weekend was set aside by only a few women that were sick of the cruddy upstate weather. They decided to make a girl's weekend and go have some fun! It's gradually grown over the years and more and more women invite their friends to just go hang with a bunch of other ladies! Every year is a different theme. This year is pirates! I'll be doing my inked wine bottle class and possibly vending. We're still working on details, but I'll let you know as soon as we've gotten them finalized.
