Today is Respect Life Sunday and we begin October's Respect Life Month. During this month we are called to remember the millions of precious unborn children who have died and the millions of women who are also suffering from the terrible scourge that has plagued our nation for over 50 years. Let us pray, especially this month, for an end to this horror not only in our country but worldwide.
Father, give us sorrow over the evils in the world and joy
as we fight them in union with you.

TODAY'S READINGS First Reading - Old Testament revelation came piecemeal, but in the New Testament, everything is revealed in Christ. He "bears the very stamp of (God's) nature." (Hebrews 1: 2-3,2:3-4) Psalms - If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Psalm 95:1-2,6-7,8-9) Second Reading — Timothy, who was ordained a bishop by Paul, is urged to complete his mission at Ephesus. He is to yield to the Spirit's power and preserve the teaching of Paul that he received. (2 Timothy 1: 6-8, 13-14) Gospel — True disciples should not expect congratulations for their service. Their work is important, but not beyond the call of Christian duty. No one can fully repay God for His gifts. Men - start your weekend off right!

Join other men of St. Therese on Saturday mornings for candid conversation about how we can become better Catholic men.

We read and discuss scripture, but most of the time spent together consists of open dialogue about how these readings relate to real events in our lives. We are fortunate to have our faith to guide us. Meeting like this helps our faith to stay strong and to grow.
