German Cardinal Clemens von Galen preached against the Nazi euthanasia program. He declared, "These numerous cases of unexpected death in the case of the insane are not natural, but often deliberately caused and result from the belief that it is lawful to take away life which is 'unworthy of being lived.' Once we admit the right to kill unproductive persons - than none of us can be sure of his life." Inspire your priests, Lord, with the courage we see in Cardinal von Galen.

TODAY'S READINGS First Reading - The Lord answers the prayers of His people and brings judgment upon wicked nations. He cannot be bribed and has no prejudice. Israel's prayer reaches God in heaven. (Sirach 35:12-14,16-18) Psalm - The Lord hears the cry of the poor. (Psalm 34:2-3,17-18,19,23) Second Reading — Paul's death is imminent. He desires it, because he is to be rewarded like the saints. He will wear the "crown of righteousness" like the wreath worn by winning athletes. (2 Timothy 4: 6-8, 16-18) Gospel — The proud Pharisee prays "with himself." The humble tax collector begs for forgiveness. In fact, the tax collector's prayer makes for a good Act of Contrition for us all. Men - start your weekend off right!

Join other men of St. Therese on Saturday mornings for candid conversation about how we can become better Catholic men.

We read and discuss scripture, but most of the time spent together consists of open dialogue about how these readings relate to real events in our lives. We are fortunate to have our faith to guide us. Meeting like this helps our faith to stay strong and to grow.
