THE NUTCRACKER

SYNOPSIS

Act 1

It is Christmas Eve in Franklin, sometime in the 1820s. In the town square, children whirl and dance with joy as snowflakes drift through the air. From his toy shop, the enigmatic Drosselmeyer prepares for his sister's grand Christmas celebration. Among his many wonders, he carries a most extraordinary gift—one that will change the night forever.

Family and friends gather in warmth and merriment to celebrate the holiday. Marie and her brother Fritz eagerly await their beloved uncle, Drosselmeyer, who arrives fashionably late. With his usual flair, he becomes the heart of the festivities, enchanting the children with a miniature theatre and marvelous mechanical dolls—a ballerina and a harlequin who spring to life with clockwork precision.

The children cheer for more, and Drosselmeyer unveils his prized creation: a wooden Nutcracker. To his dismay, most of the children dismiss it, but Marie is captivated.

She pleads with her uncle to make the Nutcracker life-size. Fritz, jealous and mischievous, snatches the toy and breaks it. Drosselmeyer repairs the Nutcracker, and soon Marie and her friends cradle their dolls, singing them to sleep. As the evening wanes, the guests depart and the house grows quiet.

Unable to sleep, Marie tiptoes back to the living room to find her Nutcracker. She drifts into slumber on the sofa. At midnight, the silence stirs—the mice creep into the room. Suddenly, Drosselmeyer appears, and with a sweep of magic, the Christmas tree towers to the ceiling and the house itself transforms. He grants Marie's wish: the Nutcracker becomes life-size, and before her stands the Nutcracker Prince.

The Nutcracker Prince rallies his tin soldiers against the mischievous mice. The monstrous Mouse Queen emerges, and the battle grows fierce. Just as defeat seems certain, Marie bravely hurls her slipper, distracting the Mouse Queen long enough for the Nutcracker Prince to strike the final blow.

Victorious, the Nutcracker Prince invites Marie to journey with him through the enchanted forest. There, they meet the radiant Snow Queen and behold the swirling dance of the Snowflakes. With a tender farewell to her brother, Marie ascends with the Prince upon a cloud, bound for the wondrous Kingdom of Sweets.

THE NUTCRACKER

Act 2

As midnight's magic deepened, Marie's dream carried her beyond the snowy forest. The world grew hushed, and a soft golden glow filled the air. From the heavens descended a host of angels, clothed in shimmering robes of light. They moved with serene grace, their wings glistening as they traced patterns across the stage. The angels danced in perfect harmony, their steps flowing like streams of starlight. It was a vision of peace and wonder, blessing Marie's journey and guiding her toward the marvels that awaited.

When the angels' dance faded into silence, Marie found herself drifting upon a cloud. It carried her gently through the night sky until she arrived at the glittering gates of the Kingdom of the Sweets. Towers of sugar sparkled in the moonlight, rivers of caramel wound through candy fields, and at the heart of it all stood the radiant Sugar Plum Fairy.

The Fairy welcomed Marie warmly and declared a grand celebration in her honor. One by one, delights from every corner of the world appeared: fiery Spanish Chocolate, hypnotic Arabian Coffee, playful Chinese Tea, delicate French Reed Pipes, vigorous Russian Troika, and the lilting waltz of Dewdrop and her Flowers. Each dance was a gift, a tribute to Marie's courage and kindness.

At last, the Sugar Plum Fairy herself stepped forward. With her noble cavalier, she performed a magnificent pas de deux, their movements shimmering with elegance and triumph.

The finale swept through the hall as the entire court joined together, filling the Kingdom with music, laughter, and light. As the dream deepened, gentle Pages appeared, guiding Marie back toward home. Though the magical land faded behind her, she carried its wonder in her heart — a memory of angels, enchantment, and the sweetness of dreams.

Mr. Nicolas Scheuer

Nicolas Scheuer, Artistic Director

Originally from Joinville, Brazil, NS Dance Academy Artistic Director Nicolas Scheuer is a nationally and internationally leading figure in the field of performing arts. Mr. Nicolas has been sharing his knowledge with young dancers in the Nashville area since 2014.

In 2002, Bolshoi Theater auditioned 500 dancers to study dance at an intensive eight-year program including classes in Ballet Technique, Variations, Pas de Deux, Contemporary, Jazz, Musical Theater, Music and Gymnastics.

Mr. Nicolas was awarded a full scholarship to begin ballet studies at the Bolshoi Theatre School of Brazil, affiliated with the prestigious Bolshoi Ballet in Moscow, Russia.

During Nicolas's time at Bolshoi Theatre School, he had the opportunity to learn and perform notable productions such as The Nutcracker, Don Quixote, Giselle and Prince Igor, choreographed by male dancer of the 20th century Vladimir Vasiliev. His dance school trajectory was a big achievement, graduating at the top of his class and getting to perform with world stars such as Natalia Osipova, Ivan Vasiliev, Ekaterina Krysanova, Andrei Bolotin. He also worked with well-known artists and choreographers such as Ekatarina Maksimova, Galina Kravchenko, Cecilia Kerche, Dmitry Afanasyev, Denny Nevidommy and Anna Russkikh.

As a professional dancer, he was offered his first contract at the age of 17 at The Theatro Municipal Rio de Janeiro. Instead, Nicolas took the skills he learned from Bolshoi to Boston Ballet School, where he continued his dance education on a full scholarship as Trainee. He performed alongside Boston Ballet's company in large-scale productions such as Midsummer Night's Dream by George Balanchine, The Nutcracker choreographed by the Artistic Director Mikko Nissinen, La Bayadère by Florence Clerc and Romeo and Juliet choreographed by the famous choreographer John Cranko.

After two years at Boston Ballet School, he began his full-time performance career at the New English Ballet Theatre in London, United Kingdom where he took on the lead roles in Classical Symphony by Jenna Lee, Le Carnaval de Vérités by Andrew McNicol, Bright Young Things a neoclassical piece by Ernst Meisner, and Resolution by former English National Ballet's Artistic Director Wayne Eagling.

In 2012, Nicolas joined the Nashville Ballet as an Apprentice and was quickly promoted to Male Lead Dancer. He continues to be a major part of Nashville's artistic community. He has performed principal roles in Nashville Ballet Artistic Director Paul Vasterling's full length ballet performances of Swan Lake as Siegfried, Romeo & Juliet as Romeo, The Sleeping Beauty as Prince Desire, Peter Pan as John Darling and the remarkable production of Nashville's Nutcracker as Sugar Plum Fairy's Cavalier and Snow King, as well as soloist roles in notable neoclassical performances such as The Ben Folds Project: Concerto performed at Kennedy center, Seasons, Time, Return and Memory, Carmina Burana as The Sun, and the world premiere of Lucy Negro, Redux as Fair Youth, featuring an original score by Grammy Award-winning artist and MacArthur "Genius".

Nicolas has had the privilege of performing magnificent full-length ballets by one of the most influential 20th century choreographers in the world George Balanchine as the male lead, The Waltz Man, in Serenade, Duo Concertan, and The Scherzo pas de deux in Western Symphony. In addition, Nicolas successfully performed Petite Mort and Sechs Tänze by Jiri Kylián, the title role in Afternoon of a Faun by Salvatore Aiello, The Lottery by Val Caniparoli, Light, The Holocaust & Humanity Project by Stephen Mills, Fanfare by Graham Lustig, Chopin Tributes by James Sewell and as a soloist in Ghosts by Tony Award winner Christopher Wheeldon, Resident Choreographer at The Royal Ballet.

NS DANCE ACADEMY LEADERSHIP AND ARTISTIC STAFF

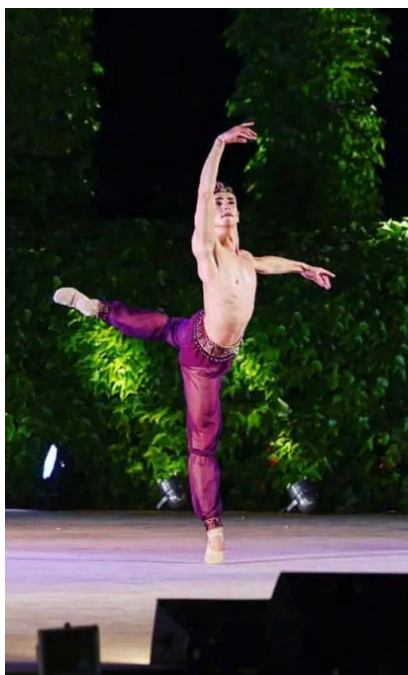

In 2016, Nicolas was awarded to perform the grand pas de deux of Le Corsaire with Alexandra Meister-Upleger, Grand Rapids Ballet's Principal Dancer, at 2016 International Ballet Competition in Varna, Bulgaria, the world's largest ballet competition.

In 2017, Nicolas was one of 16 dancers chosen from throughout the United States by Molly Lynch to join the National Choreographers Initiative. He performed pieces such as We Remain by Suzanne Haag, Resident Choreographer at Eugene Ballet, and Dreams of Flying by Robert Mill, Artistic Director of Oklahoma City Ballet.

Most recently, Nicolas aired his talent on NewsChannel 5 Nashville, Apple TV, ROKU and Amazon in a glorious full performance of Nashville's Nutcracker as Sugar Plum Fairy's Cavalier. The performance was televised and streamed online to thousands of dance lovers.

As a dance teacher, Nicolas has been sharing his wisdom and passion in Tennessee area, teaching Ballet Technique, Leaps & Turns and Acrobatics; and choreographing dance competitions and recitals. After 11 years as a professional dancer and 8 years as a top dance instructor, Nicolas has helped dancers improve their technique, win competitions and job offers all over the United States.

Nicolas is truly excited to invite you to be part of NS Dance Academy and to share his knowledge with dancers to achieve their goals and become professional dancers.
