Our Promise to You

The property buying process doesn't need to be stressful and complicated. Choosing a qualified, honest, and experienced home inspector can give you the knowledge and confidence you need to make sound real estate decisions. At Triangle Home Inspection, our comprehensive inspections and commitment to honesty and accuracy bring peace of mind to every client.

At Triangle Home Inspection, we take the time to do the job right. We spend time with you, clearly explaining our findings, and giving you solid answers that can help you make the right decision. We understand how important a real estate purchase is to you. Once our thorough inspection is complete, we email a detailed report that includes photos and explanations. We don't consider a job finished until all your questions are answered. At THI, we are totally independent and we answer only to you.
