

Jade A. Wolff, Lighting Technician

Baltimore-DC Area, 21201, (443)721-5417, jadeawolff01@gmail.com

LINKS

LinkedIn, Portfolio

PROFILE

Jade is an experienced Lighting Designer & Technician with a strong background in lighting for live events. Holds a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Design from the University of Southern California.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Jun 2025

Museum Lighting Specialist, Smithsonian Institution

Washington, D.C.

Assists in the maintenance and operation of museum lighting systems, including daylight control systems, electrical controls, and dimming systems.

- Prepares, installs, and dismantles ceiling or display case mounted lighting fixtures and accessories during exhibition changes working from technical drawings, blueprints, and other specifications.
- Performs daily maintenance of both focusable and fixed lighting systems, including re-lamping, adjustment and cleaning as required.
- Provides basic maintenance, repair and inventory of fixtures and equipment.
- Prepares and installs light track and special track-mounted hardware for various applications

Aug 2023 — May 2025

Production Lighting/Stage Coordinator, The Peabody Institute of
The Johns Hopkins University

Baltimore, MD

Provided a professional and safe performance environment to the Peabody Institute students, faculty, staff, patrons and guests. Stage managed and loaded in over 30 orchestral & dance concerts at Peabody.

Other responsibilities include:

- Maintaining accurate stage plots for various performances including: Jazz, Orchestral, Chamber, Vocal and Dance in various concert halls
- Stage Managing at off campus locations including: the Baltimore Museum of Art and Our Location in DC at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies

Aug 2019 — May 2023

Theatre Electirician, University of Southern California: School of Dramatic Arts

Los Angeles

Hung, Focused and maintain the lighting inventory for the school of Dramatic Arts at the University of Southern California. This included:

- Hanging and focusing for various shows during each school years schedule of shows in two black box theaters and one proscenium theater on campus
 - Maintaining Lighting Equipment
 - Striking fixtures post show
-

EDUCATION

Aug 2019 — Aug 2023

Bachelor of Arts in Theatre with an Emphasis in Design,
University of Southern California

SKILLS

Adaptability

Event planning

Ability to Work in a Team

Communication skills

Microsoft Office

Vectorworks

Lighting design

Master Electrician

Stage management

REFERENCES

References available upon request