

RELATIONSHIPS MATTER!

Art's A Trip™ is the Premier Educational Travel Company, designed by educators for educators, dedicated to providing safe, convenient and academically enriching field trips for students. Our staff are not cold business people, they are our "faculty", and they understand the unique needs of educational field trips. Whether it is a multi-day trip to a local historic area or several weeks overseas, we are here for you.

TIME MATTERS!

What Art's A Trip™ take your students' safety and satisfaction as seriously as though they were our own children. By "managing the moment!" through our scientifically researched methods we expertly handle every detail for the trip from conception to completion. This is accomplished through our Freedom Faculty™, QuickQuote® (our patent-pending system) and through our Guarani-3®.

Art's A Trip™ is unique in this ever increasing world of "do-it-yourself" by bringing a friendly and knowledgeable person to you, A Freedom Faculty™ who is there for You. From the convenience of your classroom, during your planning period or after school, our Freedom Faculty™ use QuickQuote® to efficiently provide you with not only the cost of the trip itself, but also all the fully customized details that are important to you. The only effort on your part is to answer a few simple questions. And of course our Guarani-3® is how we guarantee "Lower Prices, Higher Standards, and We Give Back." We thank you for the opportunity and time to meet with you and show you -

How we are...

"Helping teachers unlock the future."

SPECIAL GROUP TRIPS

(designed for athletics, chorus, drama clubs, orchestras & bands)

Let your performers showcase their talents in the USA, Canada, Europe, Asia, Australia or anywhere else in the world! Relax and allow Art's A Trip™ plan a customized trip for your band or chorus with competitions in your State, Region or even beyond. Large groups and equipment logistics are not a problem when you entrust Art's A Trip™ with your plans.

INTERNATIONAL TRIPS

Visit places and lands where native languages are spoken by natives, and where history is still a part of everyday life. Transport your students to a culture they have only read about.

See the Mona Lisa face to face. View the breath-taking Sistine Chapel's ceiling from directly below. Feel the salty breezes on the beaches of Normandy. Walk where the ancient Aztecs walked and listen to your echo from the peaks of the Swiss Alps. Taste freshly caught shrimp prepared on a real Bar-Be in Sydney. Enjoy the aroma of lavender fields near the shores of the Mediterranean Sea.

Whether you are traveling to improve language skills, visit historical monuments, or participate in international competitions, Art's A Trip™ will provide the safest, most comprehensive tour package around.

(Int'l trips are usually planned approximately 10 months in advance.)
