DEAR PADRE

March 16, 2025

Does the Church teach how we should dress to go to Mass? Maybe I'm just old-fashioned, but the way some people dress seems very disrespectful.

Church teaching, dogmas, doctrines, and creedal formulations are not the specific resources to consult in order to answer this question. It is properly a matter of discipline and practice, although the Catechism of the Catholic Church does direct that “bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey respect” (1387). There are many commentaries on what exactly “respect” might mean.

It would be very difficult to establish a universal dress code. The many different cultures, climates, and particular circumstances of a specific Catholic community make a dress code unmanageable. It seems that you judge the local practice not up to your standards. Your judgment may be correct, or you may have unreasonable expectations. There was a time when “Sunday best” was the established norm. In other communities, the expectation would be “business casual” as a bare minimum. Now, it seems standards and practices are very fluid and flexible. All of this being said, it is ultimately a pastoral concern, not doctrinal or dogmatic. Try not to allow how other people dress distract you from your purpose at Mass. While they may not look like you imagine they should, their prayer might be genuine and heartfelt.

PROJECT RACHEL

Lent began March 4 and we pray for all whose hearts are overwhelmed by sadness, despair, and guilt from participation in abortion. Be assured Jesus keeps on loving you, no matter what. Pope Francis declared 2025 the Jubilee Year of Hope (Judgment). God's gift of hope allows you to expect His comfort as you grieve for the loss of your aborted children. The Lord's mercy awaits you. Allow Him to heal you and lift your sadness into joy.

We invite you to delve into our mission and discover the services we provide by visiting our website at High Desert Catholic. Navigate to "Our Works," scroll down, and select "Project Rachel" to learn about our dedicated efforts in fostering healing and support. Information about our upcoming Healing After Abortion Retreats will be available on our website soon.

For confidential, non-judgmental, and compassionate support, please contact our helpline at 775-324-4325 or email KarenM@Catholicreno.org. We are here to guide you toward peace and healing.
