GOOD NEWS!

March 5, 2023

Second Sunday of Lent (A)

Genesis 12:1–4a / 2 Timothy 1:8b–10 / Matthew 17:1–19

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Many people, perhaps most people, have had a religious experience of some sort, something akin to that of Peter, James, and John atop the mountain with Jesus. It may or may not have included hearing a voice. Most often it is a deep sense of God's presence beyond anything they have ever known, like a profound realization of what life is about or how it is laced through and through with God. It usually occurs as we are idle, not doing anything in particular, and often when we are younger, yet it is also something that changes our understanding of what life and God are about.

Most people do not talk about such experiences for any number of reasons, partly because there do not seem to be words to describe such a moment in a way anyone would understand, like trying to describe falling in love. Partly because if we tried, we fear others would think us strange. And partly because we can find ourselves wondering whether it was real or simply our imagination. Yet always we remember the moment and know it to be true.

One additional characteristic of such moments is that they tend to take us to a new place in life, as with Abram in the first reading. For him it was to pack up his life and move. More likely for us it is to a life of service, caring, and treasuring all of life now in a new way.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ;

Catholic Relief Services carries out the commitment of the Bishops of the United States to assist the poor and vulnerable throughout the world. They respond to major emergencies such as hurricanes and earthquakes, including the recent earthquake in Syria and Turkey. They are motivated by the Gospel of Jesus Christ to cherish, preserve, and uphold the sacredness and dignity of all human life, foster charity and justice, and embody Catholic social and moral teaching. They continue to fight disease and poverty by providing water and sanitation in the poorer areas of the world and nurture peaceful and just societies.

A critical arm of the Catholic Church, their mission to assist impoverished and disadvantaged people can only be done with your help. They work with local, national, and international Catholic institutions and structures, as well as other organizations, to assist people on the basis of need, not creed, race or nationality.

Please be generous in the Catholic Relief Services Collection. Your support truly makes a difference.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

*Most Reverend Daniel H. Mueggenborg
Bishop of Reno*
