CRS RICE BOWL

Third Sunday of Lent -From Farming and Fishing

Raul and Rhodora were coconut farmers in their town in the Philippines, but it took a lot of work before they made money. They participated in a Catholic Relief Services program that helped them build their own fishpond to raise and sell fish. The fish provide nutritious food for their family and more accessible income, enabling Raul and Rhodora's granddaughters to attend school. What changes have you made in your professional, personal, or spiritual life that have benefited others? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more. Please pick up your family's CRS Rice Bowl located next to the bulletins.

PLATO DE ARROZ DE CRS

Tercera Semana De Cuaresma-De Los Cocos Al Pescado

Raul y Rhodora eran productores de coco en su pueblo de Filipinas, pero les era difícil obtener suficientes ingresos. Participaron en un programa de CRS en el que recibieron capacitación y asistencia para construir su propio estanque de peces para criar y vender. El pescado proporciona alimentos nutritivos a su familia y unos ingresos más estable, lo que permite a las nietas de Raul y Rhodora asistir a la escuela. ¿Qué cambios has hecho en tu vida profesional, personal o espiritual que hayan beneficiado a otros? Visita crsplatodearroz.org para saber más. Recoja el plato de arroz de su familia que se encuentra junto a los boletines.

GOOD NEWS!

March 12, 2023

Third Sunday of Lent (A) Exodus 17:3–7 / Romans 5:1–2, 5–8 / John 4:5–42 or John 4:5–15, 19b–26, 39a, 40–42

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

The lovelorn column in the local newspaper shared a letter from someone who felt adrift. She had everything she needed or wanted—a marriage, a job, a home. Yet she felt there had to be more to life, but she didn't know what it was or where to go. She wondered, Could anyone help me?

Like the woman from Samaria who happened upon Jesus when she came looking for water at the local well, she and the letter writer were both eager for “living water.” The woman at the well would then no longer need to come each day for her household needs, and the letter writer would have her deeper thirsts quenched. Both wanted something more out of life, not unlike most people at one time or another.

Long before Jesus encountered the woman at the well, the people who were led by Moses through the desert grumbled to him about their thirst, which triggered Moses to grumble to God about the people. The result was finding water in the desert, the most unlikely of places. As a result, they realized that God was taking care of them, that God was ultimately their source of life.

We may decide what will bring new life—a new relationship, a new job, a new home. Yet just as often the answer comes from totally unexpected sources: the deserts of our lives. Also just as often, we somehow miss the answer. When we do recognize it, however, we say, “Thanks be to God.”

DEAR PADRE

March 12, 2023

I have done some really terrible things in my life. When I did them, I didn't think anything about them, but now I feel very guilty. Can God really forgive me?

As we Redemptorists like to say, “With God there is plentiful redemption.” God's mercy is everlasting and overflowing in its abundance. As we continue in Lent, let's remember that Easter is the sign that God forgave even the great sin of the crucifixion of his only Son. Time and time again throughout the Scriptures, Jesus demonstrates this bountiful mercy. He forgave Zacchaeus, the tax collector. He forgave the woman caught in adultery. He was tender with the Samaritan woman we hear about in today's Gospel. He spent his days living among and forgiving all manner of sinners. He even forgave Peter's great denial. The Church has named a multitude of saints, but note that in 2,000 years it has never declared anyone to be definitively condemned to eternal punishment. There is hope and mercy for all.

No matter how great the sin, God will forgive it. All you have to do is ask for mercy sincerely. All that takes is a repentant heart. From the tone of your message, you are truly sorry. Find a priest with whom you are comfortable and ask him to celebrate with you the sacrament of reconciliation. If you don't know how to go to confession, just ask. The priest will help you. Be at peace.
