FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT-THE POWER OF SACRIFICE

Lent can feel like a long time. Sometimes we'd like to skip right to Easter! But through prayer and sacrifices, we share in Christ's suffering and prepare for the joy of his resurrection. This Lent, we've learned how people in Honduras, the Philippines and Kenya made sacrifices so their families and communities can thrive. How have your Lenten sacrifices helped your family and community and communities around the world? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more. Please pick up your family's CRS Rice Bowl located next to the bulletins.

QUINTA SEMANA DE CUARESMA

La Cuaresma puede sentirse como un periodo muy largo. Quizás, a veces quisiéramos pasar directamente a la Pascua. Pero mediante la oración y los sacrificios, compartimos el sufrimiento de Cristo y nos preparamos para la alegría de su resurrección. Este Cuaresma, hemos aprendido cómo la gente en Honduras, Filipinas y Kenia ha hecho sacrificios para que sus familias y comunidades puedan prosperar. ¿Cómo han ayudado tus sacrificios cuaresmales a tu familia y comunidad, y a las comunidades de todo el mundo? Visita crsplatodearroz.org para saber más. Recoja el plato de arroz de su familia que se encuentra junto a los boletines.

GOOD NEWS!

March 26, 2023

Fifth Sunday of Lent (A)
Ezekiel 37:12–14 / Romans 8:8–11 / John 11:1–45
or John 11:3–7, 17, 20–27, 33b–45

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

When I feel sorry for myself or just down in the dumps, when I feel buried by life not going the way I think it should, sometimes I remember to stop thinking about myself and my problems, and I say to myself, I need to go care about someone else. It seems that doing so pulls me out of that tomb of darkness and back into the light. Then I ask myself, Why didn't I do that sooner? The truth is, I didn't remember. But the very fact that I eventually do remember is the spirit of God dwelling within me that pulls me back into life, just as Paul once wrote (Romans 8:9 and the verses afterward). It's like hearing a voice calling me out of a dreary tomb of death, just as sure as Lazarus heard Jesus calling him out.

Have you experienced times when your spirit feels deader than dead, but then someone or something calls you back into life? I have. When that happens to us, I think we've been blessed with a hint of the resurrection. When I find myself wondering if there is really life beyond death, if resurrection really does happen to us, then I think about all the times that what I thought was a death turned out to be some unexpected doorway to new life. If that happens with such little deaths along the way, wouldn't it also happen on our last day on this earth?

DEAR PADRE

March 26, 2023

Are Catholic religious orders dying?

Yes...and no. In Africa and Asia, some religious orders are vibrant, with orders of men and women religious increasing in number. In the United States, Europe, and Oceania, it's a different story. As many as 300 of the 420 institutes of women religious in the US are in their final decades of existence (Leadership Conference of Women Religious, 2019). One-third of all women's congregations in the US have fewer than fifty members. In the US, sisters over age ninety far outnumber those under sixty. Consequently, many communities fall short of the number of active ministers needed to replace their elderly and retiring members. The story is similar for many orders of religious men.

As those in religious orders struggle to remain effective in their mission and ministry for God and humanity, they are reimagining styles of leadership, levels of administration, and, in short, ways of getting the job done. This includes, for example, creative partnerships with laypeople to share in the charisma, community life, and ministry of the religious order.

People are still drawn to Jesus and the work of building the kingdom. Only God knows how this "building process" will look in the future. As in all challenging times, the Church remains hopeful. From crisis comes resurrection!
