Meditation From Father Tom –

Twenty-Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

What is keeping us from giving ALL of ourselves over to God: heart, mind and soul? Is it fear, pride, laziness, ego or vanity? Or CONTROL? In giving ALL we receive All of the Lord and our hearts are complete.

Meditación Del Padre Tom -

Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿Qué nos impide entregarnos por completo a Dios: corazón, mente y alma? ¿Es el miedo, el orgullo, la pereza, el ego o la vanidad? ¿O el CONTROL? Al entregar TODO, recibimos Todo del Señor y nuestros corazones están completos.

Grief Support—Grief comes in many forms in addition to the loss of a loved one. It may be the loss of a long- time beloved pet, loss of personal independence, loss of health, loss of career, or estrangement from friends or family. If you are interested in exploring your grief through informal discussion keeping a Catholic perspective while in a caring, supportive, and confidential group of people traveling their own grief path, please contact Toni Fox via e-mail at tmlfox54@yahoo.com

Dear Padre

August 31, 2025

Is it sacrilegious to throw away a sacramental?

"Sacramentals do not confer the grace of the Holy Spirit in the way that the sacraments do, but by the Church's prayer, they prepare us to receive and dispose us to cooperate with it" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1670). Therefore, sacramentals confer grace through the Church's power of prayer and, if blessed, should not be thrown away but burned and/or buried. If the object has not been blessed, it can be discarded; however, it could also be donated to a Catholic ministry (school, prison, hospital, etc.) that would benefit from its distribution. (If a religious object was included in an unsolicited appeal letter from a charitable organization, it is safe to assume that it was not blessed.)

If the object is worn or broken, it should be substantially altered so that it loses its form as a sacramental and then returned to the earthly elements. For example, a worn scapular should be burned and the ashes buried; a damaged statue should be further broken into smaller fragments and buried. A European tradition on the Vigil of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist (June 23) is to burn old sacramentals in bonfires and bury the ashes. Burning and/or burial respects the sacred nature once held by these items and prevents their adaptation for trivial use. Reverence and discretion are proper for whatever method of disposal.

September 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The second collection on September 13th and 14th is for the Seminarian Education Fund. I am pleased to inform you that we are blessed to have nine young men studying in preparation for the priesthood, all from right here in Northern Nevada.

We still need to continue to foster vocations in our diocese and continue to support the young men who are in the seminary. One way to show our support is to continue praying for them and their vocations. Another similarly impactful way to support is through giving. Each year, the cost of educating each of these students is approximately $35,000. Your generous gift would help to offset the cost of their education and training.

For resources from our diocese on vocations and discernment, please visit <https://www.catholicreno.org/vocations>. On the site, you can read about our current seminarians and how to keep in touch with them throughout the year.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

+ Daniel H. Mueggenborg

PUBLIC SQUARE ROSARY CRUSADE

America is at a historic crossroad. God is more offended than ever as people ignore Our Lady's maternal request to "stop offending God". As a result, America is suffering a societal collapse. It is urgent that we heed Our Lady's request and stop sinning if we hope to enjoy God's blessings and to avert His wrath. He will hear us, if we pray through the intercession of His Blessed Mother. That's why we're doing the Public Square Rosary Crusade.

In The Secret of the Rosary, Saint Louis de Montfort said: "Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy, and Holy Mother Church, guided by the Holy Ghost, has always advocated public prayer in times of public tragedy and suffering."

6th Annual "Raise the Roof" to End Poverty – Saturday, September 13

Mark your calendars for an exciting event that supports our community! On Saturday, September 13, Catholic Charities of Northern Nevada (CCNN) will host the 6th Annual "Raise the Roof" to End Poverty event at their downtown campus, located at 500 East Fourth Street.

The day kicks off at sunrise with KBUL's on-air personality, JJ Christy, perches atop the Catholic Charities building, where he will remain until $150,000 is raised for the organization. There will be plenty of fun activities throughout the day, including a Cajun-themed catered lunch, program tours, a Thrift Store fashion show, a raffle, and more! Don't miss this chance to come together and cheer on JJ Christy as he supports a great cause.

Lunch Tickets are $20 for adults and $10 for children under 12 and can be purchased online at ccsnn.org/pages/raise-the-roof-to-end-poverty. Donations are also welcome at ccsnn.org/pages/donate.

Can't make it in person? Tune in to KBUL 98.1 to follow the event and show your support!
