Only Jesus can satisfy the deepest desires of our hearts. When we encounter Him, our lives overflow with the living water of grace. Some are called to share that grace as priests, religious brother or sisters, or consecrated virgins. Could God be inviting you to share His living water with others?

Families Fully Alive

Our reflection for the month of March is Family Difficulties. All families face difficulties. At such critical moments, it is important to learn how to suffer well and to suffer together with Christ. suffering, if given to the Lord, can bring families closer together and strengthen their love.

Ask each family member to think about one difficulty in the family and to pray for it every day. At the end of the month, share your prayer intentions and experiences.

A guidebook for the monthly program is in the back of the church.

Familias Plenamente Vivas

Nuestra reflexión para el mes de marzo es Las dificultades familiares. Todas las familias enfrentan dificultades. En esos momentos críticos, es importante aprender a sufrir bien y a sufrir juntos con Cristo. El sufrimiento, si se entrega al Señor, puede acercar más a las familias y fortalecer su amor.

Pida a cada miembro de la familia que piense en una dificultad familiar y que rece por ella cada día. Al final del mes, compartan sus intenciones de oración y sus experiencias.

Un libro guía para el programa mensual se encuentra junto a los boletines.

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

As we prepare to support The Catholic Relief Services Collection, let us unite in our mission of love and compassion. Your generous contributions to this collection provide emergency assistance to victims of war and natural disasters, as well as crucial support for migrants and refugees in need of housing, education, and legal aid. It also extends pastoral care to travelers and those who require spiritual support to access the sacraments.

Among the most vulnerable are victims of human trafficking. Millions of men, women, and children worldwide are coerced into commercial sex activities, labor, and slavery—atrocities that our Holy Father has condemned as "a crime against humanity". The Church is called to combat this grave injustice and bring comfort and healing to its victims, proclaiming Christ's salvation and restoring the dignity of all persons.

With funds received through The Catholic Relief Services Collection, the office of Migration and Refugee Services (MRS) of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops launched a pilot program to combat human trafficking among indigenous Hawaiians in the Diocese of Honolulu and on the St. Regis Mohawk Reservation in the Diocese of Ogdensburg, New York. Working with local partners, MRS staff assessed the challenges facing those communities, trained local leaders to recognize the signs of human trafficking, and helped leaders establish networks to respond to the needs of victims.

The invaluable work supported by The Catholic Relief Services Collection enables MRS and five other Catholic ministries to reveal Christ's love to victims of trafficking, war, and natural disasters both around the world and here in the United States. I ask you to prayerfully consider how you can support the collection this year.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,

Yours in Christ,

13 y 14 de marzo

Queridos Hermanos y Hermanas en Cristo:

Al prepararnos para apoyar la Colecta de Catholic Relief Services, unámonos en nuestra misión de amor y compasión. Sus generosas contribuciones a esta colecta brindan asistencia de emergencia a las víctimas de guerra y desastres naturales, así como un apoyo crucial a migrantes y refugiados que necesitan vivienda, educación y asistencia legal. También brinda atención pastoral a quienes viajan y a quienes requieren apoyo espiritual para acceder a los sacramentos.

Entre los más vulnerables se encuentran las víctimas del tráfico humano. Millones de hombres, mujeres y niños en todo el mundo se ven obligados a participar en actividades sexuales comerciales, trabajo forzado y esclavitud, atrocidades que nuestro Santo Padre ha condenado como "un crimen contra la humanidad". La Iglesia está llamada a combatir esta grave injusticia y brindar consuelo y sanación a sus víctimas, proclamando la salvación de Cristo y restaurando la dignidad de todas las personas. Con fondos recibidos a través de la Colecta de Catholic Relief Services, la oficina de Servicios de Migración y Refugiados (MRS) de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos lanzó un programa piloto para combatir la trata de personas entre los indígenas hawaianos en la Diócesis de Honolulu y en la Reserva Mohawk de St. Regis en la Diócesis de Ogdensburg, Nueva York. En colaboración con socios locales, el personal de MRS evaluó los desafíos que enfrentan esas comunidades, capacitó a líderes locales para reconocer las señales del tráfico humano y ayudó a los líderes a establecer redes para responder a las necesidades de las víctimas.

La invaluable labor apoyada por la Colecta de Catholic Relief Services permite a MRS y a otros cinco ministerios católicos revelar el amor de Cristo a las víctimas del tráfico humano, la guerra y los desastres naturales, tanto en todo el mundo como aquí en Estados Unidos. Les pido que consideren con oración cómo pueden apoyar la colecta este año.

Con mis mejores deseos y la seguridad de mis oraciones, quedo,
