BISHOP'S CORNER-GOSPEL REFLECTION

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of John 6:51-58. This is one of the most important Eucharistic passages in the New Testament. There are several important points to reflect on as we celebrate this great Feast with the Church throughout the world.

Engage in an in-depth discussion by Bishop Mueggenborg on four current Gospel readings. Here you will find deeper questions and reflection. The recent Gospel Reflections can be found on our Diocesan website. Scan QR Code

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST CORPUS CHRISTI

The Feast of Corpus Christi invites us to honor and adore the true presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, His Body and Blood given for the life of the world. This solemn celebration calls us to deepen our reverence for the Holy Eucharist, reflect on the mystery of Christ dwelling among us, and renew our gratitude for this greatest gift of our faith. As we gather for Mass, we unite our hearts in thanksgiving and praise for the Lord who remains with us in the Sacrament of the Altar.

La solemnidad de Corpus Christi nos invita a honrar y adorar la verdadera presencia de Jesucristo en la Eucaristía, Su Cuerpo y Sangre entregados por la vida del mundo. En esta celebración, profundizamos nuestra reverencia por el Santísimo Sacramento, contemplamos el misterio de Cristo que permanece entre nosotros y renovamos nuestra gratitud por este don supremo de nuestra fe. Al reunirnos en la Misa, unimos nuestros corazones en acción de gracias y alabanza al Señor que se queda con nosotros en el Sacramento del Altar.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) (A)

Deuteronomy 8: 2-3, 14b-16a / 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 / John 6:51-58

MIGUEL DULICK

The "Bread of Life Discourse" in the sixth chapter of the Gospel of John is an astonishing teaching. "The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world" (John 6:51b). Creation was wonderful, the Incarnation was wonderful, but now Jesus takes the final step in God's coming ever closer to us human beings, as close as food, as intimate as eating Christ's body and drinking his blood. For us Catholics, it's called transubstantiation: the Host—something we hold in our hand—is so divine that we worship it!

The crowds listening to Jesus could not have imagined how you would "eat" (literally, "gnaw") Jesus' flesh or drink his blood, and certainly not a whole year before the Last Supper (not to mention, hundreds of years before St. Thomas Aquinas). When surveys showed that many of today's Catholics are just as confused and doubtful as the crowd at Capernaum, having lost faith or even interest in the Eucharist, the American bishops launched a search-and-rescue mission to recover "The Mystery of the Eucharist in the Life of the Church," published in 2021.

Paul bases the sacrament in our own experience. "The cup...that we bless" and "the bread that we break" create the ultimate reality: "we, though many, are one body"—of Christ! (See 1 Corinthians 10:16-17.) The priest says, "The Body of Christ," and we respond, "Amen!"

What is the significance of the Holy Eucharist in our lives as Christians?

The Mass should be understood as the celebration of our union—our communion—with Christ and his Church, which is the body of Christ. The Mass presumes participants have an existing personal relationship with Christ. We were united to Christ through baptism. We have received his Holy Spirit, empowering us to carry out Christ's threefold mission: the prophetic mission of announcing his message and denouncing sin; the priestly mission expressed in a life of prayer, self-sacrifice, and participation in the liturgy; and the kingly/servant mission expressed in service to God and neighbor.

For the Eucharist to be meaningful, we must first experience a personal encounter with Christ—one that leads to personal conversion and a decision to live as disciples in community. Indeed, the Eucharist both celebrates and deepens our communion with Christ. The Eucharist also deepens our communion with fellow believers. "The Eucharist's particular effectiveness in promoting communion is one of the reasons for the importance of Sunday Mass," wrote Pope St. John Paul II in On the Eucharist in Its Relationship to the Church (Ecclesia de Eucharistia), 41. Without this loving, sharing community, the Mass becomes empty. Whenever we attend Mass and receive holy Communion, we should ask ourselves: Are we really in communion with Jesus and the body of Christ, his Christian community? If not, then we should seek this broader communion in our lives.
