September 5 & 6: Second Collection for the Seminarian Education FundThe Diocese of Reno is blessed to have six young men studying in preparation for the priesthood.

We still need to foster vocations in our diocese and support the young men in the seminary. One way to show our support is to continue praying for them and their vocations. Another similarly impactful way to support them is through giving. Each year, educating each of these students costs approximately $35,000. Through our second collection this week, we have the opportunity to pray for them and financially participate in their growth and development. Please prayerfully consider making a gift that will help form the future priests that will serve the Diocese of Reno.

BISHOP'S CORNER

Gospel Reflections: 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 18:15-20. In this reading, Jesus teaches us the importance of charitable correction for those who are harming themselves or the community. Disciples have the responsibility of helping others pursue a life of holiness, and sometimes that can require helping others turn away from serious and sinful actions. This passage is an important instruction for us on how we can seek the good of others in the most constructive and charitable way. The Lord knows that when we are offended we will respond. In this passage, Jesus is teaching disciples to respond in the right way..

Engage in an in-depth discussion by Bishop Mueggenborg on four current Gospel readings. Here you will find deeper questions and reflection. The recent Gospel reflections can be found on our Diocesan website. Scan QR Code Below

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Ezekiel 33:7-9 / Romans 13:8-10 / Matthew 18:15-20

ANN M. GARRIDO

As someone who works in the field of conflict management, I like to think that all situations can be worked out if we go about it in a skilled manner. If we use the right words. Ask the right kinds of questions. It's embarrassing to admit that even the best "tools" in my "conflict belt" sometimes still effect little change. Today's gospel can be consoling in a strange way. It acknowledges that even when we use all the tools we have on hand to heal a relationship, it doesn't always work out. Sometimes, we may need to become strangers to one another, at least for a while—like a Jew to a Gentile or a tax collector.

Of course, when Jesus says "treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector," it is important to consider how Jesus treated Gentiles and tax collectors. He healed the centurion's servant. He ate in Zacchaeus' house. Jesus did not see Gentiles and tax collectors as enemies and did not treat them as such. Rather, Jesus understood Gentiles and tax collectors as those with whom he might start a relationship should the opportunity present itself. The past cannot be rewritten, but perhaps a different kind of future is still possible.

Is there a relationship in your life that feels beyond healing at this point and from which perhaps you need some distance? Is it still possible to treat the other person with the kindness Jesus showed toward Gentiles and tax collectors?

DEAR PADRE

September 6th, 2026

I had not been to confession for decades until recently, and I've probably committed mortal sins I can't remember. I want God's forgiveness, but I'm unsure how to get it at this time.

You ask if God has forgiven you for sins that you may have committed in the past but that you don't remember now. You say you have been to confession recently.

A mortal sin has three criteria: it is seriously wrong; the person knows it is seriously wrong; and the person is free to commit the sin or not. In the case you are describing, you don't even remember what the mortal sin might have been, or even if there was one. So, no, you don't have to confess something you don't remember. Also, you have already gone to confession recently, and you sound truly repentant for your past sins. You do not indicate that you were deliberately trying to hide any sins from the priest. So, you have already been forgiven, not only for the sins you remembered but also for those you don't remember. That is why usually we will say something like "for these sins and for those I may have forgotten" when we go to confession.

The bottom line is that confession is for you to experience God's mercy. It is not to test how good your memory is. Be at peace. God loves you and particularly wants you to experience the peace that comes from his forgiveness.
