Gospel Reflections: 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 16:21-27. In this reading, we hear of how Peter turns quickly and easily from thinking as God does to thinking as men do. In doing so, Peter tries to deter Jesus from embracing His passion in Jerusalem. Peter's statements of misguided faith and Jesus' corrective responses to Peter are instructive to us in our discipleship as well.

Engage in an in-depth discussion by Bishop Mueggenborg on four current Gospel readings. Here you will find deeper questions and reflection. The recent Gospel reflections can be found on our Diocesan website. Scan QR Code Below

Upcoming Second Collections:

September 5th & 6th – Seminarian Education Collection

September 12th & 13th – Building Fund

September 19th & 20th – Maintenance Fund

September 5th & 6th

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The second collection on September 5th and 6th is for the Seminarian Education Fund. I am pleased to inform you that we are blessed to have six young men studying in preparation for the priesthood.

We still need to continue to foster vocations in our diocese and continue to support the young men who are in the seminary. One way to show our support is to continue praying for them and their vocations. Another similarly impactful way to support is through giving. Each year, the cost of educating each of these students is approximately $35,000. Your generous gift would help to offset the cost of their education and training.

For resources from our diocese on vocations and discernment, please visit <https://www.catholicreno.org/vocations>. On the site, you can read about our current seminarians and how to keep in touch with them throughout the year.

With every best wish and an assurance of prayers, I remain,
Yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Daniel H. Mueggenborg

GOOD NEWS

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)

Jeremiah 20:7-9 / Romans 12:1-2 / Matthew 16:21-27

MIGUEL DULICK

Would it surprise you to know that Jesus uses the same Greek verb to chase Peter away—"Get behind me, Satan!" (Matthew 16:23) that he used to call him in the first place—"Come after me" (Matthew 4:19)? Pity the translator who must assign opposite meanings to the same word! Jesus changed Simon's name to Peter when he called him, and now he changes it to Satan for his demotion. But, as harsh as the rebuke is, maybe we could say Jesus does want Peter behind him, but not too far behind. In fact, immediately after dealing with Peter, Jesus issues a general call, using the same "trigger" word: "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

The cross! That's how the controversy started, when Peter "took Jesus aside" (literally, "collared" him) to forbid even the thought of any passion or any cross. (See Matthew 16:22.)

How am I tempted as Peter was to avoid any talk of a cross? I don't even want to admit I'm a sinner, much less that there is a cross for me. Paul, in his letter to the Romans, has some advice for all of us who think like Satan: "Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God," and "Do not conform yourself to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God" (Romans 12:1-2). Everything for Jesus.

DEAR PADRE

August 30, 2026

Are we required to disobey or break an evil law?

According to St. Thomas Aquinas, a just law has four characteristics. It must be (1) an ordinance of reason, (2) for the common good, (3) properly promulgated, and (4) by a legitimate authority. According to St. Augustine, evil is a lack of something that should be there. When applied to law, if one of the four characteristics is missing, the law lacks something that should be there, and thus is evil. An unjust law, in other words, is an evil law. As Christians, we are generally encouraged to obey the laws of the state. As the Apostle Paul states, "Let every person be subordinate to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God" (Romans 13:1). At the same time, we also have the responsibility of forming our consciences according to God's revelation in Scripture and Tradition as interpreted by the divinely ordained teaching authority of the Church. Although we are not bound to follow an unjust law, the degree to which we should actively disobey it depends on the level of evil the law promotes. Because of its serious nature, a law promoting abortion, for example, should be actively resisted through peaceful protests and appropriate legal and civil activism. Laws that promote lesser evils need to be carefully evaluated by Church authorities and our own well-informed consciences.
