2026 Missionary Cooperative Program

At the weekend Masses of 10/17 - 10/18/2026, there will be a special collection in support of church missions as part of the annual Missionary Cooperative Program coordinated by the Diocese of Reno. This year we will have a guest missionary to present the appeal in person and share their ministry and needs.

Please be generous in your support!

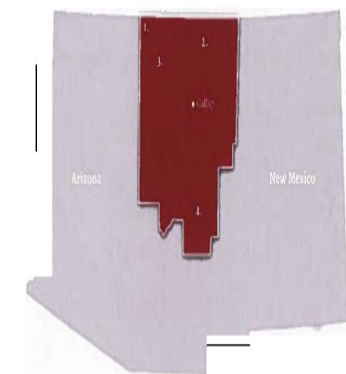

Mission: The Diocese of Gallup

The Diocese of Gallup: 55,468 sq miles. That's about the size of the state of Illinois! But our resources are limited. Here are some examples of where your donation may be used:

1. Immaculate Heart of Mary School, Page, AZ
The Sisters of the Congregation of Jesus Mary Joseph run a rapidly-expanding K-3rd grade school and provide religious education to working families.

2. Priests' Retirement Fund.
Many priests in the Diocese continue to serve well past retirement age. The PRF helps to cover the cost of their medical care.

3. Kayenta and Tuba City, AZ.
In the heart of the Navajo Nation, the parishes of St. Jude and Our Lady of Guadalupe operate a food bank provide sacramental ministry to remote and rural areas.

4. Catron County, NM. The 4 parishes in the far south of the Diocese require expensive heating in winter, Church upkeep and repairs, and fuel for priests who travel extensively to say Masses each weekend.

Missioner: Rev. Jojappa (Joseph) Madanu

The continued ministry of the Diocese of Gallup is dependent upon the generosity of the faithful outside its borders to keep the doors open and to support its services to those in physical and spiritual need. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated.

Programa Cooperativo Misionero 2026

En las Misas de fin de semana de 10/17/12 - 10/18/2026 habrá una colecta especial en apoyo de las misiones de la iglesia como parte del Programa Cooperativo Misionero anual coordinado por la Diócesis de Reno. Este año tendremos un misionero invitado para presentar el llamado en persona y compartir su ministerio y necesidades. ¡Por favor, sea generoso en su apoyo!

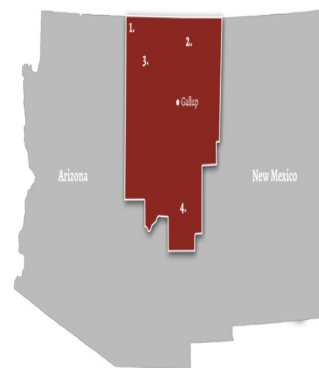

Misión: La Diócesis de Gallup

La Diócesis de Gallup: 55,468 millas cuadradas. ¡Eso es más o menos el tamaño del estado de Illinois! Pero nuestros recursos son limitados. Estos son algunos ejemplos de dónde se puede utilizar su donación:

1. Escuela Inmaculada del Corazón de María, Las Hermanas de la Congregación de Jesús María José dirigen una escuela del K-3er grado en rápida expansión y brindan educación religiosa a familias trabajadoras.

2. Fondo de Jubilación de los Sacerdotes.
Muchos sacerdotes de la Diócesis continúan sirviendo mucho después de la edad de jubilación. El FJS ayuda a cubrir el costo de su atención médica.

3. Kayenta y Tuba City, AZ.
En el corazón de la Nación Navajo, las parroquias de San Judas y Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe operan un banco de alimentos que brinda ministerio sacramental a áreas remotas y rurales.

4. Condado de Catron, Nuevo México. Las 4 parroquias en el extremo sur de la diócesis requieren calefacción costosa en invierno, mantenimiento y reparaciones de la iglesia, y combustible para los sacerdotes que viajan mucho para decir. Misas cada fin de semana.

Misionero: Rev. Jojappa (Joseph) Madanu, MF

El ministerio continuo de la Diócesis de Gallup depende de la generosidad de los fieles fuera de sus fronteras para mantener las puertas abiertas y apoyar sus servicios a los necesitados física y espiritualmente. Su generosidad será muy apreciada.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Deacon Sunday

"Many are invited, but few are chosen" Matthew 22:14

On Deacon Sunday, we celebrate permanent deacons who respond to God's call to serve His people. Take time to thank a deacon, pray for all who serve the Church in this meaningful way, and encourage men to consider answering God's invitation to the diaconate.

El Domingo del Diacono, celebramos a los diáconos permanentes que responden al llamado de Dios a servir a su pueblo. Dediquemos un tiempo a agradecer a un diácono, oremos por todos los que sirven a la Iglesia de esta manera significativa y animemos a los hombres a considerar responder a la invitación de Dios al diaconado

BISHOP'S CORNER

Gospel Reflections: 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Scripture passage for this Sunday comes from the Gospel of Matthew 22:1-14. In this passage, we read the Parable of the Wedding Feast that contains several surprises and cautions for us as disciples. Some of the elements in this parable are similar to the Parable of the Vineyard, such as the violent response of the tenants toward the Son and the response of the Master. Also, this parable shares some similarities with the Parable of the Two Sons, such as initial commitment but subsequent rejection of the invitation. In addition to these similarities, there are also new elements in this week's passage that are distinctive to Matthew's account, so we will focus our reflection on these particular elements.

Engage in an in-depth discussion by Bishop Mueggenborg on four current Gospel readings. Here you will find deeper questions and reflection. The recent Gospel reflections can be found on our Diocesan website. Scan QR Code Below

The month of October, we rejoice for the presence of the Holy Guardian Angels. We pray for all women who have had abortions and all those mourning the loss of an unborn child. May these heavenly angels intercede to open hearts and minds, offering comfort, protection, and guidance. We pray all may experience the profound healing, boundless love, tender mercy, and compassionate embrace of God. Pope Leo XIV declared this the Year of St. Francis.

If you or someone you know needs support, we invite you to delve into our mission and discover the services we provide by visiting our website at Diocese of Reno. GOOD NEWS

October 11, 2026

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time (A)
Isaiah 25:6-10a / Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20 /
Matthew 22:1-14 or 22:1-10
MIGUEL DULICK

The closer Jesus gets to his death, the more targeted are his parables, specifically to the "chief priests and elders." He has no patience with their hypocrisy.

The wedding feast has a long history in the prophets and the psalms, always a glorious celebration of love and delight—God marrying the chosen people. But in today's gospel, Jesus speaks of the feast as a massacre. When the guests refuse to attend his son's wedding, and they even kill the messengers sent to invite them, the enraged king amasses his troops to destroy "those murderers" and burn their city to the ground. So, the chosen people are un-chosen. Then, the king tries again, this time sending the servants to "whomever [they] find." And then comes a beautiful moment: the servants invite the "bad (literally, "evil") and good alike," and they fill up the hall! This echoes Jesus' own promise of the cross: "When I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself" (John 12:32).

There is one more twist to the story that keeps Jesus in his own uncompromising space. When the king spots a guest without a "wedding garment," he binds him hand and foot and throws him out into the darkness. Pretty scary—but do stay with Jesus. Accept the invitation to the banquet. And let Jesus dress you in his own garment of grace.

Dear Padre

October 11, 2026

In the Creed, we say we believe in the resurrection of the body. So, why is it all right to be cremated?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church clearly states what many find confusing: "It is very commonly accepted that the life of the human person continues in a spiritual fashion after death. But how can we believe that this body, so clearly mortal, could rise to everlasting life?" (CCC 996). The Catechism goes on to address several questions: "What is rising? Who will rise? How? When?" (CCC 997-1001). In essence, "Christ 'will change our lowly body to be like his glorious body,' into a 'spiritual body'" (CCC 999). The disposition or condition of the physical body at death will not affect the spiritual body that is raised. Cremation, decomposition, mutilation or dismemberment by violence, or the donation of one's body to science—deemed "a noble and meritorious act...to be encouraged as an expression of generous solidarity" (CCC 2296)—does not prevent the resurrection of our glorified body. It is only when the act of cremation appears to be a public denial of faith in the resurrection or the sacredness of the body that the practice is forbidden.
