

"Unity – Working Together to form One Voice."

Gateway Community Development, Inc. (GDC) was created to educate the lower and middle classes. The services provided are educational and awareness's of programs they might qualify for. These services focus on the underrepresented and the forgotten. GDC's focus on providing a playing field that will allow the community that is willing to elevate themselves up and on a path to the American Dream through education.

Purpose:

The purpose of GDC, Inc. is to serve civilians, veterans, individuals, couples, families, groups, faith communities, and institutions of the community; to help them overcome barriers to improve their quality of life. GDC, Inc. will also provide information, advocacy, collaboration, and referrals.

Program:

GDC, Inc. will conduct a minimum of four (4) free informational sessions.

GDC, Inc. will provide a website which focuses on information about benefits that will be of value to the community.

GDC, Inc. is also a place where the community can find resources that work with the community to provide great services.

GDC, Inc. will aid with scheduling meetings to go review paperwork and provide guidance on next steps to qualify for various benefits.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Who qualifies for assistance from GDC, Inc.?

- Anyone can qualify if they live in New York State.

Can I attend all workshops given by GDC, Inc.?

- Yes, you can attend all the workshops, and you can invite a friend.

Is there a membership fee?

- No, this is a free service.

GDC, Inc.'s goal is to ensure that everyone who is eligible for benefits is given a chance to apply. Most importantly, GDC, Inc. will continue to research and provide information to enhance the knowledge base of the community at large.

GDC, Inc. will act as the voice for the underrepresented.

Gateway Community Development, Inc.

1132 Southern Blvd.

P.O. Box #122

Bronx, N.Y. 10459

Email: Gatewaycom22@gmail.com

Website: <https://Gatewaycommunityinc.org>

"A Stronger Voice is One When we Work Together."

Gateway Community Development, Inc. is a 501C-3 (Not-for-Profit), established in 2014.