Depression Incarnate

Aka PA's Election 2022

By Adam

The following article is an Op-Ed, an OPINION article by a newspaper staff member, but does not necessarily represent the opinion of the newspaper, The Lemon Tea

As most of you know, the PA elections created a slightly worse government for us all. In this year's Senate race, Fetterman and Oz have squared off for the vacant seat. John K. Fetterman, former mayor of Braddock and Lieutenant Governor. Dr. Mehmet C. Oz doesn't need such an introduction.

This year's Governor race has turned heads and made waves as Josh Shapiro, the not-so-Democratic candidate, and Doug Mastriano, the even more extreme Republican. This battle was, from the start, one that could not be won.

In the Senate race, John Fetterman is our new representative and a great sigh of relief for us all. He promises to improve working conditions and consumer goods, as well as supporting United States Manufacturing in one of the country's most populated areas.

Josh Shapiro has won governorship for the next four years. He similarly hopes to create equal opportunity for those across Pennsylvania,

Vice President

Q: Why did you run for vice president?

A: I ran because I want to assist and to make the school a better place, and the easiest way to do that was to run for vice president and because my friend was running already.

Q: Would you say Abby is a good president?

A: Yes, yes she is.

Q: What grade are you in?

A: 8th grade.

Q: Do you think the branch communicates well?

A: At first before someone got impeached it was a little bad and when he got impeached it got better.

Q: What's your favorite chicken?

A: I don't eat chicken.

Q: What is your favorite dessert?

A: I would say lemon meringue pie.

Q: Do you think the government is a little bit too strong for middle school and are they productive enough?

A: There are many ways we can improve but right now I would say it's really easy.

Mystery of the Missing Bertha

By Aubrey

Do any of you remember Bertha? She was the little critter on Dominique's whiteboard. Sadly she got erased permanently. Her lifespan lasted from September 6 2022-November 1 2022. She went through about 3 Rebirths, but this time is probably for good. Of course she's not here, but she looked something like this: May she rest in peace and have a safe trip to Corn heaven

Yearbook Food Drive for Thanksgiving

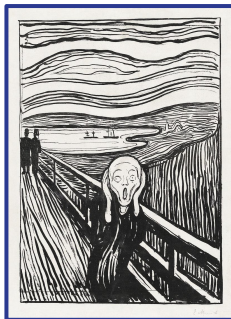

Yearbook has taken a step of kindness once again! Ms. Riddle/Lori has taken on a mission to start a Food Drive for the Center Country Food Bank. If you are considering donating, please make sure all foods are non-perishable. The Food Drive starts October 31st, to November 15th. Please consider donating. All boxes are located in the front office/lobby. (Big orange boxes, you can't miss them).

What is a Queen's Gambit in Chess?

The queen's gambit is when you temporarily sacrifice a pawn to gain control of the center of the board. If black accepts the gambit $dxc4$ white should reply by doing $3 e3$ which not only gives the d4 pawn an extra defender but also frees up the bishop to attack and regain the pawn and works very well. This is what the queen's gambit would look like.

The queen's gambit originated in the 15th century.
