

When, in 1782, the bald eagle was picked as a national symbol, Benjamin Franklin opposed the choice of that "cowardly" bird. His choice? The noble turkey, which he described as "a much respectable bird, and a true original Native of America, which would not hesitate to attack a British soldier who should presume to invade his farm yard with a red coat on."

What do you need to make Thanksgiving s'mores? - Marshmallows, chocolate, & pil-grahams!

What did the Thanksgiving turkey say to the Christmas ham? -Nice to meat you!
