

Key Outcomes

The sermon focused on the Holy Spirit's role as the Spirit of Truth — guiding believers into all truth, revealing things to come, and providing supernatural wisdom inaccessible through human senses. The central message: believers must actively receive and depend on the Holy Spirit to access revelation knowledge, live victoriously in Christ, and make Spirit-led decisions.

Decisions Made

Revelation knowledge (from God via the Holy Spirit) must replace sense knowledge (five senses/carnal mind) as the basis for all decisions. 1
Believers must remain fully connected to the Word of God to sustain access to the Holy Spirit's guidance. 2
Obedience to the Spirit's direction is better than sacrifice — when God says go, believers must go. 3

Core Teaching Points

Holy Spirit as Teacher & Guide: Sent by the Father to teach all things, bring Scripture to remembrance, and reveal things to come (John 16:13; John 14:26). 4
Conviction and Righteousness: The Spirit convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and judgment — confirming believers have right standing with God through Christ. 5
Supernatural Wisdom: God did not give His wisdom to man independently; humans are designed to be dependent on God to impart wisdom as needed (1 Corinthians 2:9–10). 67
Inward Witness: The Spirit bears witness with the believer's spirit (Romans 8:16), providing an internal assurance of God's love and truth — spirit to spirit, not through intellect. 8

Traffic Light Framework for Spirit-Led Decisions

Red Light — A check or uneasiness in the spirit; stop, be still, and seek God. 9
Yellow Light — A warning to slow down, pay attention, and proceed only when safe. 10

Green Light — A deep peace and excitement confirming the decision is right; move forward. 11

Victory in Christ

Satan is a defeated foe with no power except deception; believers have authority and dominion over him through the finished work of the cross. 1213

What the enemy intends for evil, God always turns around for good — illustrated by Paul and Silas in Philippi (Acts 16). 14

Believers are victors, not victims, sharing in Christ's triumphal procession (2 Corinthians 2:14). 12

Blocking Revelation Knowledge

Failing to receive the ministry of the Holy Spirit blocks further revelation from heaven. 15

Walking as a nominal Christian ("I'm a Christian") rather than as an active disciple and follower limits access to God's wisdom. 15

Practical Applications

Seek God first before spouse, pastor, family, or external sources (Google, WebMD) when facing decisions or illness. 2

God confirms His word repeatedly — through Scripture, other believers, and even everyday media — in the way each person best receives it. 16

When God places someone on your mind, stop and pray for that person immediately. 17

Sleep and peace are gifts from God available to believers who trust Him fully, not relying on their own abilities (Psalm 127:2; Isaiah 26:3). 18

Open Questions / Personal Reflection Prompt

"Has the Spirit of the Lord residing in you changed your life?" — posed as a self-examination for attendees. 19

Are believers truly listening to the Holy Spirit's warnings, or overriding them with carnal, sense-based decisions? 20
