Blount County Arts and Crafts Guild page 2

The Guild offers to members with dues current and attending at least three meetings during a calendar year....

- To vote
- To exhibit art/craft as a member of Blount County Arts and Crafts Guild.
- To receive any additional benefits of membership.
- To use Blount County Arts and Crafts name in publicizing personal work.
- To participate in the Guild Christmas Arts and Crafts show or other Guild exhibits. A separate application and member requirements to participate in the Christmas Show is required.

Guild meetings are held monthly in the Blount County Library, Sharon Lawson room. (Note: Normally 6:30 pm, however, several meetings thru the year begin at 6:00PM). There are no meetings in June or July. September meeting is Guild's annual picnic. December meeting is the Guild Member Christmas Party. The March meeting includes an Open House Dinner. There will be on meeting held if the Blount County Library is closed. Meetings include guest speakers and member share of craft.
