CLUE #1 Oeey, gooey chewy describes my most popular dish. Sprinkled with garlic and laced with red pepper, all who stop in, know it's a show stopper.	CLUE #2 I may not have two arches but I am definitely _____ and my buttery, savory, Jamaican patties, will make you LUST for my _____.
CLUE #3 I am known for boiling our bread before we bake it. We are only open for breakfast and lunch but we would never rob you from having EVERYTHING you want on any of our rolls with holes.	CLUE #4 Through my doors you will find a joyful cafe, open everyday except Sunday. With fresh quiche, empanadas, french pastries, macarons and much more...I'm where all Tamaracians come to feel restored!
CLUE #5 Well, I'm new and, I have a VIEW...so if you see little white balls flying across my landscape, you're probably here for my delicious fusion cuisine and a quiet escape.	CLUE #6 Welcome to Jamrock! Where the words of our brethren Bob Marley makes everything Irie.... and the food from our PAN you will savor till D END...., I'm sure you will agree, it's time to come enjoy my jerk chicken, plantains and ackee.
CLUE #7 I have 58 reasons to welcome you here, is it live entertainment, lounging, sports viewing or beer? It must be them all but what I recall, it's my special cuisine of the Caribbean that brings most of y'all!	CLUE #8 My name rhymes with "Picasso &amp; Stallion Thrill" and if my customers were trophies, I would have (over a mille)...the Big Apple's got nothing on me, cause I've got the best crust and cheesiest cheese!
CLUE #9 "Over the river and through the WOODS, to delicious American-fusion cuisine you go. I am known to be quite a holey place with 27 holes full par, but it's my executive chef that brings all the boys and girls in from the yard!	CLUE #10 My flavors are peppered with French, German and Spanish, with a huge dose of aromatic African in it. Lots of rich roux, gumbo, and stew, come get some red beans and rice, akra and kalalou too...hint: you don't need a pardon to visit my garden.
CLUE #11 The people of my mountainous western region of Columbia, wake up to smell of fresh bread, throughout the day, it keeps us fed. But my Latin fare goes across the board from my chicharron, guava and cheese pastry, pan de bono, meringue, and much much, more.	CLUE #12 My secret ingredient is in my name, and cooking from SCRATCH is the name of our game. Serving American classics with much more than just cheese, preparing every meal that is destined to please. So come hungry, stay late cause your gonna eat every bite on your plate.
CLUE #13 If you see a chicken holding a flag, you are probably right outside of my door. I am the place with Dominican flavors that will leave you craving more. Mofongo, chinola and scrambled hollows with chili, to a non-Spanish ear may sound a bit silly, but with one little bite you be thinking "Oh yeah REALLY!!" To me that is "muy rico" cause I am _____.	CLUE #14 My Peruvian flavors and culinary displays might have you eating with us everyday. Be it my Ceviche Mixto, Causa Camarones or Lomo Saltado you may find yourself blurring out the bilingual word, BRAVO! Many may say my name is sexy please put an "A," I'd rather be called _____.
