Covid-19 Update

- Face coverings must be worn while inside the tasting room. Face coverings may only be removed while seated actively consuming food or beverages.
- Beverage orders inside the tasting room may only be placed when seated at a table: it is our pleasure to serve you so please allow us that opportunity.
- Please remember to wear face covering when standing and moving about the tasting room and using the restroom.

We strive to keep CKBC safe for everyone and want everyone to have the best experience possible so please follow the guidelines. If you do not wish to follow these guidelines, please do not remain in the tasting room as that jeopardizes our license to operate.

Thank you for visiting Cross Keys Brewery. We hope to see you again soon!
