

Kathleen Scarbalis, PA-C

Kathleen Scarbalis is the Managing Director of Highland Consulting LLC, a veteran-owned, service disabled, small business, <https://highland-consulting.com/>. Kathy is a PA, with experience in pediatric hematology/oncology, general pediatrics, family practice. She currently serves as AAPA House of Delegates representative for the Virginia Academy of PAs as well as a proud past president of the state organization. She is an active member of the Medical Society of Virginia (MSV), serving on two boards, the Political Action Committee, and the Foundation Boards of Directors, completing a two-year term as president of the MSV Foundation. She continues her commitment to improving the communication among PAs and providing excellent healthcare with the physician/PA teams in Virginia.

Kathy received her B.S. degree from St. Lawrence University in Canton, New York majoring in chemistry and education. She received her physician assistant degree (PA) from Albany Medical College, Albany, NY and then a Masters in PA Studies from the University of Nebraska Medical Center. Kathy has been a practicing PA for almost 40 years, most recently working at the Center for Cancer and Blood Disorders, Pediatric Specialists of Virginia in Fairfax, since 2006.

In conjunction with her husband's military service, Kathy is well traveled and worked in several US states as well as Germany, Belgium, and Korea providing primary care in military clinics. Kathy has been married over 38 years to her husband, Dave who retired from the Army as a Colonel. Philanthropy and volunteerism have always been important. Dave and Kathy continue to be involved in many organizations.