Procurement and Contracts Division

National Association of Minority Contractors

March 3, 2022

Who we are

- The Procurement & Contracts Division (P&CD) is Sound Transit's professional, centralized procurement function located in the Executive Department.
- Through the P&C Division, public solicitations are issued and procurement contracts are awarded for all of the agency's capital, operating and administrative requirements including architectural and engineering services, construction, maintenance, equipment, materials, technology and professional, technical and support services.

Who we are

We are:

- Expert, experienced procurement and agreements professionals.
- Led by the Chief Procurement and Contracts Officer (CPO) Ted Lucas.
- The Division holds the Pareto Award of Excellence in Public Procurement.

Core Principles

The core principles of our work are:

- Competition
- Integrity
- Equity
- Sustainability

How We're Organized

Equity in Contracting Goals

- Reducing process/contractual barriers to Small/Disadvantaged Businesses
- Increasing the experience/competitiveness of Small/Disadvantaged Businesses
- Increasing equity and inclusion through Prime selection in the evaluation process
- Improving connections to Small/Disadvantaged Businesses with Primes and Sound Transit
- Improving communication and information sharing with Primes and Subs
- Explore Contract Packaging for Small/Disadvantaged Businesses

Contracting Opportunities

- For Contracting Opportunities, please visit <http://vendorportal.soundtransit.org> for more information and to register.
- We are committed to fair, competitive and transparent procurement practices and to obtaining the best value for our customers while expending the region's taxpayer dollars efficiently, effectively and responsibly. We procure goods, services and public works from qualified offerors and award contracts to suppliers, service providers and contractors who are deemed capable of meeting contract requirements.
