

Virtual Panel Discussion

Monday, November 9, 2020, 1:00pm-2:30pm PST

RSVP to Sarah Copeland at sarah.copelandscl@q-epc.com

How to Successfully Navigate in a Design Build Environment Learn about Contract Opportunities for the Cedar Falls Project

Who Should Attend: Prime and subcontractors interested in doing business with Seattle City Light and interested in working on Cedar Falls project specifically.

Presenters

- Kara Williams, Women Minority Business Manager, Seattle City Light
- Kimberly Rayray, Contracts and Procurement Manager, Seattle City Light
- Lawrence Bigham, Asset Management Large Projects Project Controls Supervisor, Seattle City Light
- Michael LeBlanc, Project Manager for Cedar Falls, QEPC
- Tim Gentile, Procurement Specialist, QEPC

Moderator: Regina Glenn, QEPC WMBE Outreach Coordinator

Agenda

Seattle City Light

- Discuss participating on City Light's Design-Build contracts
- Registering for City Light's WMBE Program
- Importance of being prepared with an open mind and your qualifications for the positions
- Tips for showing how you meet City Light's experience requirements
- Discuss what is City and Prime Contractors are looking for in a WMBE on Design-Build contracts?

QEPC

- Review contract opportunities on the Cedar Falls Project
- Discuss specific contract opportunities

For more information:

Kara Williams, Women Minority Business Manager
Email: Kara.Williams@seattle.gov
Phone: 206.549.5806

Tim Gentile, Procurement Specialist, QEPC
Email: tim.gentile@q-epc.com
Phone: 913.329.7894