Should Jennifer Knies be included in this process? I never agreed to her supervision past two years which would have ended December 2023 but she still believes and makes decisions as if she has jurisdiction. Can someone please help me understand?

Thank you,
Amber Green

I am not part of the relocation motion. My term was indefinite, but typically these terms are two years. I leave it to the parties to decide whether to terminate my term.

Hi Amber,

The PCDM would not be attending the mediation.

Mikayla,

Will you please submit an amended motion since the PCDM is listed several times throughout the Father's proposed Parenting Time Relocation Plan for after the Father moves to South Carolina? Since both parties are now recognizing that Jennifer Knies has been acting outside of her jurisdiction on this case for years and has failed to implement the original parenting plan, Mikayla can you please submit to me a parenting plan that does not involve the PCDM before mediation?

Sincerely,
Amber Green

Good Morning,

No, that is incorrect. Jennifer Knies has not been acting beyond her scope as the PCDM in this matter.

Jennifer Knies's jurisdiction as the PCDM on the case expired on December 28th, 2023. C.R.S.14-10-128.5 "A court order appointing a parenting coordinator shall be for a specified term; except that the court order shall not appoint a parenting coordinator for a period of longer than two years. If an order fails to specify the length of the court-ordered appointment, it shall be construed to be two years from the date of appointment."

Thank you,

Amber Green

What has been established here Mikayla is that you and Jennifer Knies have been working together past December 28th, 2023 on the 2020DR31264 case.

Look forward to mediation tomorrow.
