

The Lyrics

Come To You

Words and Music by Avery Stafford

Chorus

I can come to You and tell You anything
I know You'll never change Your love
It's the reason I sing
I open up my life to You and I'll surrender all my pain
For the rest of my days, I come to You

Verse 1

A quiet place where I can see Your face
Not a trace of hesitation – You give me grace
As the tide rolls away along the golden bay
I wanna stay and never go away (chorus)

Verse 2

A broken heart restored – full of life once more
Like the mighty lion's roar, You rock my senses to the very core
All I've ever wanted from You was to hear the art I drew
I know that's a different point of view
Completely brand new! (chorus)
