

Burials Better Than Birthdays

Ecclesiastes 6:10–7:14

- I. We should grapple with death (6:10–7:4)
- II. We should grapple with correction (7:5–6)
- III. We should grapple with delayed gratification (7:7–14)

Q1: Tell us about a “hard” experience in your life that ended up teaching you something valuable?

Q2: What was your main takeaway from the text/sermon that was preached?

Q3: How can we tell whether someone correcting us is truly wise or just critical?

Q4: How could it be true for someone who has lost loved ones or vitality that they should not spend life lamenting the good old days?

Q5: How can we pray for you?
