

Enjoyment Marked Urgent – Ecclesiastes 9:1–12

a. Death happens to all (vv.1-4)

b. Death takes from to all (v.5)

I. Because death is sure, enjoy the little things (vv.1-10a)

II. Because death is sure, invest in the big things (vv.10b-12)

Q1: Pastor Rob kicked off the sermon with the illustration about milk expiration dates. When it comes to the date on a milk jug, are you a strict “expiration day = trash day” person, a cautious sniffer, or a fearless “it’s probably fine” warrior? Tell us your personal rule and defend it.

Q2: What was your main takeaway from the sermon/text that was preached?

Q3: What earthly pursuits or emotions lose their significance in the face of death?

Q4: How should Christians enjoy little things differently than the worldly pleasure seekers around us?

Q5: How can we pray for you today?
