Q1: What is your main takeaway from the sermon/text that was preached?

Q2: The way that people who aren't Christians attempt to make sense of the world is by answering the following questions: where did we come from? What is wrong with the world, and how can we fix it? And what does the future hold? How do non-Christians try to answer these questions, and how is it different from Biblical Christianity?

Q3: John is describing part of the eternality of Jesus, that he is without beginning, without end, and without succession of time. Why does this matter to us?

Q4: In what ways is Jesus like light, and how does He change the way we live our lives?

Q5: Who do you know that is in darkness that we can pray for?

Q6: Not forgetting what we've learned in James, what sin struggle can we pray for you in the midst of? How can we pray for you in general?
