

Pretty Living in an Ugly World

Ecclesiastes 3:16-4:16

- a. The world is unjust (vv.16-21)
- b. The world is oppressive (4:1-3)

Main Point: In this corrupt world, we should enjoy our work.

We should enjoy our work with

I. Contentment (4:6)

II. Community (4:7-12)

Q1: What was your biggest takeaway from this sermon or the passage?

Q2: How is the delayed justice that God brings still real justice?

Q3: How do you discern when your life reflects the “handful of quietness” Solomon describes—striking a balance between work and rest?

Q4: What is one way you are currently struggling with how you wish the world was—and how can we pray for your contentment in that area?

Q5: How else can we pray for you?
