Provoking Your Children To Grace (Part II) — Ephesians 6:4

MAIN POINT: The goal of all discipline is Dad's making disciples.

I. You Must Discipline Your Children (Ephesians 6:1–3)

II. You Must Disciple Your Children (Ephesians 6:4b)

Q1: The sermon opens with the image of a child as an oak tree — marked for life by what a parent leaves in them. What's one specific way you were marked (for good or ill) by a person who raised you that you still carry today?

Q2: What's your main takeaway from the sermon/text that was preached?

Q3: What hope is there in God for Christian parents who often feel like failures?

Q4: What encouragement would you offer someone who is estranged from their adult children? (Alternative for groups without children at home)

Q5: How can we pray for you?
