

THE SHIELDS Long Island Inc.

Please submit applications to:
Lloyd Thompson, Membership Chairman
36 James Street
New Hyde Park, NY 11040

The Shields Long Island, a social and fraternal organization incorporated since 1969 is composed of active and retired members of all ranks from various police departments and other law enforcement agencies.

Our meetings (announced in our newsletter) feature dinner, distinguished speakers, and an awards presentation.

For active members with at least two years of consecutive membership, we offer their dependent children a chance to be awarded a monetary scholarship. We also sponsor an annual holiday party for the benefit of the member's children and family.

The Shields Long Island is a well-respected organization, providing opportunities, camaraderie, and unending support for police and their families.

Please take this opportunity to join us and let us welcome you.

APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

All active and retired police officers, peace officers, federal and state police officers as described in the CPO and in The By-Laws of this organization, not excluding Supervisory Personnel, are eligible for membership pursuant to those By-Laws and approval by the membership.
