 Great job ladies!! We'll do it again next Christmas!

Tara Adams was the winner of the Bear Quilt!!

Teisha is going strong with Yoga now on Mondays and Thursdays from 10a-11a

Pam Kirkpatrick bowled a perfect 300 game at Wii Bowling! Yay Pam!!

Coffee and Conversation with Sheriff Lehr was once again very informative, educational and this time a real eye opener talking about Fentanyl and the drug problem we have at our southern border. We'll have him back again in a few months, to talk about another interesting topic. Watch the newsletter for date and plan to attend!

Our Christmas Holiday Lunch was soooooo good!!
The kitchen staff did an excellent job with the tables, the dining setup was beautiful!
Then came the seniors and the prime rib and all was well.
Thank you to our exceptional kitchen staff for giving us a meal to remember!

Dear Friends of Rendezvous Pointe, thanks to your generosity we have had a very successful fund-raising effort. In 2022 donations to our cause totaled $52,877. This organization is very grateful to you all. While we have done our best to keep careful track of all donations if you feel your name was overlooked on this list, please let us know so we can apologize, correct our mistake and strive to do better in the future.

Once again, from all of us here at Rendezvous Pointe-

Thank you so much for your support.

February

is a curious month early in the new year and it is spelled with two r's and we never pronounce the first one unless we have a compelling desire to sound out every letter is a month when thoughts turn to love and romance and heart shapes abound and Dan Cupid's arrow strikes and activates a latent desire for a mate and the valentine asks if love will be mine is a month to remember presidents: Lincoln on the 12th and Washington on the 22nd and our military veterans on the 14th from past wars in Europe and Korea and Viet Nam is a month penance of sack cloth and ashes when Ash Wednesday begins the season of Lent a part of Christian tradition which recognizes a special forty days in the life of Jesus Christ

A Dog Named Card: not really.

What I have to tell is a little bit about a dog named Card; well not really, that was his nick name. Maybe he was called Card because it would have been easier for him to learn to respond to this short name rather than his real, or given name. He was a smart dog though; I'm sure he could have learned a longer name in short order. So, then again, maybe he was called Card, simply because it was more convenient for those who would be calling him, talking to him or when talking about him with others. Who knows?

O.K., You've heard, read about, or saw in the movies about a baby showing up on doorsteps, usually in a basket for whatever reason; this is the way Card showed up. There he was, no more than a couple of months old, looking up and wagging his tail at a friend of mine. There was a note tied to him; it gave his name, and his nick name--Card. It explained that the family that had left Card moved to this area of St. Louis, only about 6 months ago, from Deadwood, S.D. to find work in a munitions plant. About the time of their move, World War II ended, large munitions production was ending, and instead of hiring, workers were being laid off. Well, the sum of it was that they had to move on and could not take all the puppies with them. They hoped he would be given a good home. Folks that now cared for him, which was most of the neighborhood, agreed that he should indeed, be known as Card; this was thought to be better both for him as well as us.

Card was from the beginning a really neat puppy. He was mostly Lab, but with a good mix; he was very good with kids even the very small ones. When he was grown, he could, and I believe he loved, to play rough with the older kids and adults; he would be just as rambunctious, and feisty as they were.

In his 11 years, Card brought much happiness to many. He now lies beneath a wooden marker inscribed:

GOODBYE CARD, WE LOVE YOU.

I never did learn Card's real name; I guess it doesn't matter, It was who Card was.
