NOTE: The above example recipe is typed with 12 characters per inch, which we prefer. However, you may use 12 or 10 characters per inch.

REMINDER: Type ingredient list in 2 columns to use full width of the bracketed spaces, as shown in the example above. This includes short recipes, like the one above. Also type the recipe directions across the full width of the bracketed space instead of in a column. The reason we ask you to do this is to fit as many recipes on one page for copying the Recipe Book and keep the cost low for the book.
