Planning Session for Texas
Division Reunion

Wives, friends, and families are welcome to attend.

Welcome to 2026!!

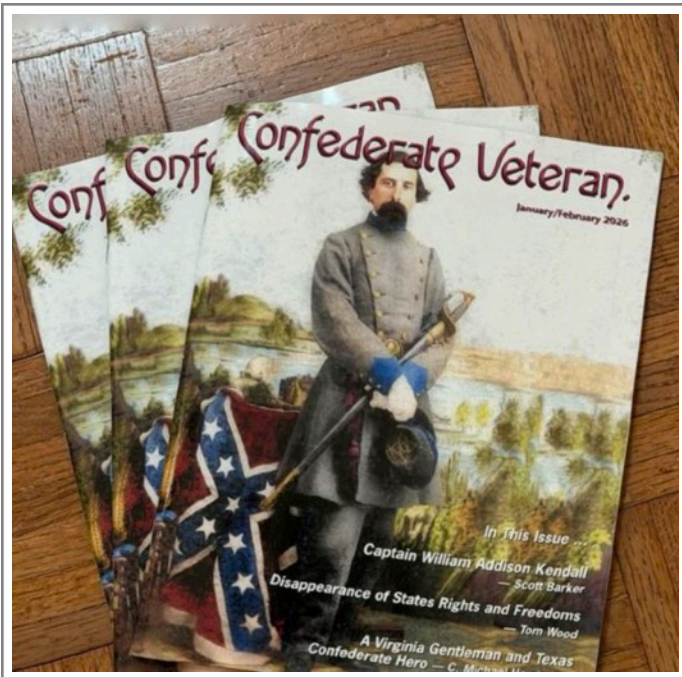

It is hard to believe that the holidays are over and the warm sunny days of January are here. Wait, isn't supposed to be cold in January?? That is Texas weather for you, right?

Regardless of the weather, 2026 promises to be the best year ever for our camp. Here are just a few upcoming 2026 highlights in our near future:

- ✦ January 18 - Posting Flags at Oakwood
- ✦ January 19 - Confederate Heroes Day
- ✦ March 21 - Spirits of Oakwood
- ✦ April 4 - Confederate Heritage Month Celebration
- ✦ June 5-7 - Walker's Greyhounds Hosts the Texas Division Reunion
- ✦ July 16-19 - 131st Annual Reunion of Sons of Confederate Veterans in Lexington, KY

Indeed this will be a "Year to Remember"!

Happy New Year!

The January Issue of the Confederate Veteran is in the mail! Watch out for the latest edition and keep up with the SCV nationwide.

Smith County Confederate Veteran Spotlight...

Jacob Virgil Carter 1843-1905

Private, Co. D., 3rd Mississippi Infantry

Jacob Virgil Carter was born in Lauderdale Springs, Mississippi on 27 October 1843. He was the third of nine children born to the Charles C. Carter (1816-1870) and Lucy Elizabeth Rogers Carter (1820-1870). Lauderdale Springs was a small community with a population of 289 in 1860. He was likely home schooled as no public education was available in the area.

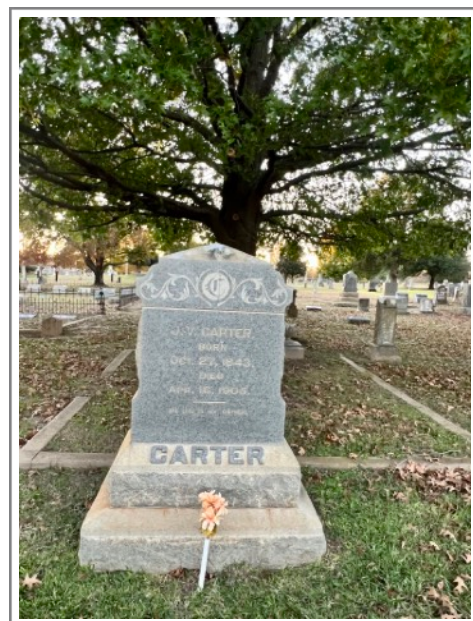

When the war began in 1861 Jacob Carter enlisted as a Private on 5 September 1861 in Chunky, Newton County, Mississippi. He was soon mustered into service in Company D "The Chunky Heroes" of the Third Regiment Mississippi Volunteers. Editor's Note: Chunky, Mississippi got it's name from the nearby Chunky River, which itself comes from the Choctaw word "Chanki". In 1862 the Third Mississippi Infantry was sent to Vicksburg to aid in the defense of the city. Assigned to General Winfield S. Featherston's brigade, and the brigade reported strength of 572 men. The Third Mississippi was involved in the Battle of Champions Hill, in May 1863 and following the battle Featherston's brigade served in the defense and Seige of Vicksburg. The were posted outside the city's defensive lines, and so the 3rd Regiment was not captured when Vicksburg surrendered on 4 July 1863. The 3rd then took part in the Meridian campaign opposing Union General Sherman and was later transferred to Georgia in 1864. The 3rd then served in the Atlanta campaign, where the 3rd fought at New Hope Church, Kennesaw Mountain, and Peachtree Creek. In his after-action report following Kennesaw Mountain, General Featherston wrote "The 3rd Mississippi acted with coolness, courage, and determination". The 3rd Mississippi then took part in the Battle of Franklin, TN and the Battle of Nashville, TN. Following the retreat from Nashville, the brigade had been reduced to only 71 men by December 1864. Editor's Note: I do not find Jacob Carter as having any muster sheets following the retreat from Nashville. He may have continued to serve for the duration of the war, as records were hardly kept at that time by the Confederate government.

In the spring 1865 the 3rd Mississippi regiment was consolidated with the 33rd and 40th Mississippi Infantry. The unit took part in the Carolinas campaign, fighting in the Battle of Bentonville, North Carolina. The consolidated regiment formally surrendered at Bentonville, North Carolina on 26 April 1865.

After the war, little is known of the life of Jacob Carter until 1866. Where he appears in Navarro County Texas and married, Miriam "Mary" Grice (1844-1918) on 15 November 1866. According to the census, he came to Tyler, Texas by 1870. To this union God gave eight children. He died in Tyler on 16 April 1905. He and his wife Mary are laid to rest in plot 5<sub>4</sub> at historic Oakwood Cemetery in Tyler, TX.

How Do I Join The Sons of Confederate Veterans?

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved. Membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans is open to all male descendants of any veteran who served honorably in the Confederate armed forces. Membership can be obtained through either lineal or collateral family lines and kinship to a veteran must be documented genealogically. The minimum age for full membership is 12, but there is no minimum for Cadet membership.
