High School; also. Have an uber account to help parents get to school for meetings ~15,000 parents replied to the parent survey - see results on the district webpage under Family Engagement District now doing "Heart of Brevard" quarterly magazine; anyone can submit a teacher/administrator for recognition (heart@brevardschools.org) Only 50% of parents have created accounts for FOCUS (Action team meeting on Oct 18th talking about FOCUS) Katie Campbell - school board is rolling out a recognition program as well; talked about To Whom It May Concern sheet in Peachjar Also talked about the ECG being added to the physical requirement for student athletes. Counselors for Change doing a Posters for Change that 6th graders can participate in (this is mental health focused) 5K and Fall Festival There are 373 racers signed up - not enough shirts for everyone. Will have two rescue golf carts to bring people back from the course - just need to pull the race bib. The kids race will start after the last person crosses. Kids can do both the 5K and the kids race. Patricia will pick up race packets for people who sign up and will bring them to the school at 2pm. Beat-the-Bucket is not a dunk tank and will be in the sun. Need more baked goods. Renee will pick them up tomorrow morning (please drop them off by 8:30 am). The baked goods are for the cake walk - no bake sale. Cake Walk is by Keesecker's room. Deputy Hernandez Safety Talk He'll think about what to do about cyclists running over small children) Audience Questions/Comments Trosset &amp; Tressler are recognizing the Volunteer of the Year - Jennifer Nagy. Yay!
