

OUR PHILOSOPHY

The institution of the family lies at the center of the success of every Orthodox community. It is in the family dynamic that dedicated Christians grow and thrive. It is in the family context where Christian values and the Orthodox way of life are instilled and adopted by tomorrow's generation.

OUR MISSION

To provide a strong nurturing foundation while empowering children to reach their full potential spiritually, emotionally, socially, intellectually, and physically.

Our Faculty

Our bi-lingual Archangels Academy faculty is comprised of faithful and committed teaching professionals who bring their love of education to the classroom daily. Our small class size ensures that all students get the attention they need to thrive.

Sofea Malamis, Director

Mrs. Sofea has been involved with our program for over 16 years, both as a parent and as a teacher. She has a passion for early learning, especially enriching young minds through play and mindful experiences. Mrs. Sofea holds a degree in Early Childhood and has also completed extensive training in the Creative Curriculum/Teaching Strategies, Jolly Phonics Literacy Program and Montessori Instruction.

Katerina Alexakos

Kyria Katerina has been teaching Greek language and culture at our Preschool for over 17 years. Kyria Katerina implements modern pedagogical methods and practices in her lessons while being supportive and encouraging to our students. She attends yearly workshops hosted by the Department of Greek Education of the Metropolis of Chicago and the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America.

Rev. Father George Lamberis

Father George's priority is the faith formation of our students and their families. He visits the classroom regularly and engages our students with mini-lessons, hands-on and age-appropriate lessons on the Orthodox Faith. We welcome Father George to Saint Spyridon and to the Archangels Academy.

READY, SET, GROW!

Young children learn best by doing. Archangels Academy's curriculum engages our students with high quality, developmentally appropriate lessons through play and exploration in a safe, caring environment. Our highly qualified faculty team, teach and differentiate instruction so that our little learners are engaged, motivated and kindergarten ready.
