Details

This hexagram represents an open mouth (cf. hexagram 27) with an obstruction (in the fourth place) between the teeth. As a result the lips cannot meet. To bring them together one must bite energetically through the obstacle. Since the hexagram is made up of the trigrams for thunder and for lightning, it indicates how obstacles are forcibly removed in nature. Energetic biting through overcomes the obstacle that prevents joining of the lips; the storm with its thunder and lightning overcomes the disturbing tension in nature. Recourse to law and penalties overcomes the disturbances of harmonious social life caused by criminals and slanderers. The theme of this hexagram is a criminal lawsuit, in contradistinction to that of Sung, CONFLICT (6), which refers to civil suits. THE JUDGMENT BITING THROUGH has success. It is favorable to let justice be administered. When an obstacle to union arises, energetic biting through brings success. This is true in all situations. Whenever unity cannot be established, the obstruction is due to a talebearer and traitor who is interfering and blocking the way. To prevent permanent injury, vigorous measures must be taken at once. Deliberate obstruction of this sort does not vanish of its own accord. Judgment and punishment are required to deter or obviate it. However, it is important to proceed in the right way. The hexagram combines Li, clarity, and Chien, excitement. Li is yielding, Chien is hard. Unqualified hardness and excitement would be too violent in meting out punishment; unqualified clarity and gentleness would be too weak. The two together create the just measure. It is of moment that the man who makes the decisions (represented by the fifth line) is gentle by nature, while he commands respect by his conduct in his position. THE IMAGE Thunder and lightning: The image of BITING THROUGH. Thus the kings of former times made firm the laws Through clearly defined penalties. Penalties are the individual applications of the law. The laws specify the penalties. Clarity prevails when mild and severe penalties are differentiated, according to the nature of the crimes. This is symbolized by the clarity of lightning. The law is strengthened by a just application of penalties. This is symbolized by the terror of thunder. This clarity and severity have the effect of instilling respect; it is not that the penalties are ends in themselves. The obstructions in the social life of man increase when there is a lack of clarity in the penal codes and slackness in executing them. The only to strengthen the law is to make it clear and make penalties certain and swift. THE INDIVIDUAL LINES 1 Nine at the beginning means: His feet are fastened in the stocks, So that his toes disappear. No blame. If a sentence is imposed the first time a man attempts to do wrong, the penalty is a mild one. Only the toes are put in the stocks. This prevents him from sinning further and thus he becomes free of blame. It is a warning to halt in time on the path of evil. Six in the second place means: Bites through tender meat, So that his nose disappears. No blame. It is easy to discriminate between right and wrong in this case; it is like biting through tender meat. But one encounters a hardened sinner, and, aroused by anger, one goes a little too far. The disappearance of the nose in the course of the bite signifies that indignation blots out finer sensibility. However, there is no great harm in this, because the penalty as such is just. Six in the third place means: Bites on old dried meat And strikes on something poisonous. Slight humiliation. No blame. Punishment is to be carried out by someone who lacks the power and authority to do so. Therefore the culprits do not submit. The matter at issue is an old one-as symbolized by salted game-and in dealing with it difficulties arise. This old meat is spoiled: by taking up the problem the punisher arouses poisonous hatred against himself, and in this way is put in a somewhat humiliating position. But since punishment was required by the time, he remains free of blame. Nine in the fourth place means: Bites on dried gristly meat. Receives metal arrows. It furthers one to be mindful of difficulties And to be persevering. Good fortune. There are great obstacles to be overcome, powerful opponents are to be punished. Though this is arduous, the effort succeeds. But it is necessary to be hard as metal and straight as an arrow to surmount the difficulties. If one knows these difficulties and remains persevering, he attains good fortune. The difficult task is achieved in the end. Six in the fifth place means: Bites on dried lean meat. Receives yellow gold. Perseveringly aware of danger. No blame. The case to be decided is indeed not easy but perfectly clear. Since we naturally incline to leniency, we must make every effort to be like yellow gold-that is, as true as gold and as impartial as yellow, the color of the middle [the mean]. It is only by remaining conscious of the dangers growing out of the responsibility we have assumed that we can avoid making mistakes. Nine at the top means: His neck is fastened in the wooden cangue, So that his ears disappear. Misfortune. In contrast to the first line, this line refers to a man who is incorrigible. His punishment is the wooden cangue, and his ears disappear under it-that is to say, he is deaf to warnings. This obstinacy leads to misfortune. 2 Note: For "Nine at the beginning" Confucius notes: "He is not ashamed of unhappiness, and is not afraid of unrighteousness: if he sees no advantage, he is not moved: if he is not intimidated, he does not improve. But when he is treated in a small way, he takes great care of himself. A fortune for the small person." 1) The individual lines are declared independent of the total sense of the sign, so that the first and the highest punishment incurs, while the rest are charged with the imposition of punishments (compare with, The corresponding dashes of the sign no. 4. Mong, the youthfulness). (2) It is to be noted that there is yet another interpretation which emanates from the idea "above the light, i.e., the sun, below the motion" outwards the sign to a market which is down in motion while the sun is up at the top "The flesh of the nose is the disappearance of the smell, that is, the person is not avaricious, the poison points to the dangers of wealth etc. Note: For "Nine at the beginning" Confucius notes: "He is not ashamed of unhappiness, and is not afraid of unrighteousness: if he sees no advantage, he is not moved: if he is not intimidated, he does not improve. But when he is treated in a small way, he takes great care of himself. A fortune for the small person." Note: For "Nine at the top", Confucius notes: If the good does not accumulate, it is not enough to make one famous. If evil does not accumulate, it is not strong enough to destroy one. The commoner therefore thinks that good things in small things have no value; Therefore he omitted it. He thinks: Little sins do no harm. That's why he does not get used to it. Thus his sins accumulate until they can no longer be covered, and his guilt is so great that they can not be solved.

Harmony of communication, inspiration, mental strength, creativity, truth, word awareness, hearing the inner voice. No. 5 Medium blue Chalcedony, Rock crystal Peppermint, Sage Clarity and openness, throat chakra Mountain crystal is a clear, pure quartz crystal without colouring and opacifying contaminants and so gives a clear perception. Chalcedony is valid from time immemorial as a stone of the speakers. In literature, two aspects of communication are described for the Chalcedon; the ability to listen, and the ability to understand. The essential oil of peppermint is a refreshing and uplifting scent. The spicy scent of sage oil promotes the flow of energy and completes the composition with a pleasant contrast.

The analysis and optimization lists and the associated possible choice of words, e. g. "healing of..." and "resolution of causes..." are not a healing promise in the medical sense, but serve the positive influence similar to an affirmation, where a goal is defined, which one wants to achieve. The following optimization does not represent a medical diagnosis or therapy! It cannot replace an examination or treatment by a doctor or non-medical practitioner.
