2. A.K.N. Tribal Code 117.02(b)(3)c Coercion.....$15,000.00 x 4
3. A.K.N. Tribal Code 117.02(b)(6) Theft.....$15,000.00 x 4
4. A.K.N. Tribal Code 117.02(b)(7) Trespass.....$15,000.00 x 4
5. A.K.N. Tribal Code 117.02(b)(8) Negligence.....$15,000.00 x 4
6. A.K.N. Tribal Code 117.02(b)(4) Assault.....$15,000.00 x 1

Total Amount Due: $315,000.00 / three-hundred and fifteen-thousand dollars and zero cents, payable to El Shanu Cazu Bey, by STATE OF FLORIDA ex-relatone: Christina Henry, Austin Taylor, Jerome Kaszubowski, and Anthony Lynn Ritenour, Judgment Debtor(s).

STATEMENTS OF FACT AND LEGAL CONCLUSIONS

¹ Each respondent is being charged for the violations of law numbered 1 through 5. Austin Taylor is also being charged charge for the violations of law under number 6.

This instrument is a Notice of Plaintiff's Default and Dishonor upon the several instrument(s) tendered [specifically the Challenge of Jurisdiction, Motion to Dismiss, and Writ of Quo Warranto] to confirm the authority by which you, Christina Henry, Austin Taylor, Jerome Kaszubowski, and Anthony Lynn Ritenour, in error, are attempting to reduce our Tribal National to slavery and or peonage under the color of law and authority, neither of which has been vested in your persons by laws of United States, the accused or the laws of the tribe. A Writ of Quo Warranto was received by the Respondent(s) on or about August 06, 2025 through e-filing #228891864 in Highlands County Court Case No. 2024CT000401TTAXMX. These discoverable questions in the Writ were ignored by the court whom offered no constitutional authority to avoid the queries, just legal speculation and misrepresentations of facts and law, placed above a wet signature that is presumed to be unquestionable and supposed to give rise to some unverified authority. The voidable Order and behaviors of Anthony L. Ritenour do not and cannot represent a protected act of the judiciary under the 11th Amendment that may not be attacked for its vagueness, false claims of authority, and coercive attempts to invalidate the tribal rights of El Shanu Cazu Bey and the Al'Maurii Khan Nation to govern themselves contrary to the enumerated powers of government within the Constitution.

This Tribal Consul reserves the right to treat the ORDER DENYING MOTION TO SET ASIDE CAPIAS as [1] a waiver of defense to any damages or claims arising from the unconstitutional actions of respondents, [2] evidence of liability against Anthony L. Ritenour and Christina Henry for civil liberties and or tribal rights violations, and [3] as a voidable instrument / nullity upon its face, while [4] also being proof of willful denial of discoverable facts relating to the lower court's presumption of jurisdiction and authority to act in this matter. Said unconstitutional filing #230276878 in Highlands County Court Case No. 2024CT000401TTAXMX further attempts to violate the well-being of El Shanu Cazu Bey and the right to not be subjected to negligence, attempted theft of inalienable rights, coercion / intimidation that hinders his enjoyment of a religious liberty and court ordered name change for an adult. He also enjoys a reserved right to not be subjected to frauds, trespasses upon his freedoms and other violations and chargeable offenses under tribal and international law.

Respondents' response is an attempt to avoid their obligations to the supreme law and omit their requirements to dismiss matters whereby jurisdiction cannot be proven on the record. This evasion of duties on their part also warrants the matter being removed to a proper venue whereby consideration of the tribal rights, privileges, and immunities of El Shanu Cazu Bey, as expressed by the Challenge of Jurisdiction filed on 07-17-2024 can be properly applied in the matter. The filing by Respondent[s] feigns a colorable authority that to date remains in question and warrants no enforcement or protection from attack in any future hearing on the matter.

All Respondents are in error and have knowingly defaulted, by willfully attempting to omit their limitations of proceeding in a criminal matter whereby subject-matter, territorial, and personam jurisdiction has been challenged and where no victim exists and the burden of proof of a victim and jurisdiction has not been met according to the law.

The record of the lower court does not reflect [1] any reply to the defendant's Challenge of Jurisdiction filed on 07-17-2024, [2] a timely or properly filed traverse by the State in reply to El Shanu Cazu Bey's c(4) Motion to Dismiss, and or [3] any objection to El Shanu Cazu Bey's waiver of an appearance for a pre-trial hearing, and thus no jurisdiction or authority to issue any warrant or capias to appear against the person of El Shanu Cazu Bey.

By affixing my seal hereto, it is affirmed under penalty of perjury under the laws of the Al'Maurii Khan Nation that all of the respondent[s] shall be Judgment Debtors and are in error and have defaulted, remain in default, and are collaterally estopped from proceeding for failing to establish standing through lawful procedure requiring [1] an Article III Court whenever the State is a party to a matter and or [2] a victim to which a testimony may be obtained as support for the offenses alleged as criminal against Our tribal national, El Shanu Cazu Bey. Any reply other than a dismissal or abatement of the charges after you respondents have received this notice of default and dishonor shall be a willful failure and guarantee for immediate satisfaction of the claims against the Judgment Debtors.
