MICHIGAN

FUN FACTS

MICHIGAN NATIONAL GUARD

- The Michigan National Guard was officially established in 1862, but Michigan militias date back to the early 1800s, even before statehood in 1837
- Michigan Guard units have served in every major U.S. conflict, from the Civil War and World Wars to the War on Terror in Iraq and Afghanistan.
- Camp Grayling is the largest National Guard training center in the U.S., spanning 147,000 acres in northern Michigan. It hosts units from across the country and even international forces.
