

Saturday, January 18, 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Reunion), Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

Sunday, February 2, 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Reunion), Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

Saturday, February 22, 2020 – Q2 Robotics Roadshow, Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators partner with D.o.D. Starbase Indianapolis to host a STEM workshop for military youth aged 8-14. Participants who successfully complete the workshop will receive a swag bag of STEM related items.

Sunday, February 23, 2020 – Q2 Teen Council Meeting, Indianapolis, IN

Teens will meet to continue their anti-bullying campaign and begin planning for Teen Summit. Teens may bring 1 guest with them to this meeting as it will double as an Anti-Bullying Event. Programming will be provided by CampTown staff and an anti-bullying speaker will be present. Officers will be expected to lead one workshop during this event. More information will be released as we get closer to the date.

Saturday & Sunday, March 7-8, 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Reunion), Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

March 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Pre-Deployment), TBD

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

March 2020, Q2 Health and Wellness Workshop: Dance Clinic, Indianapolis, IN Youth Coordinators partner with local dance company to provide military youth a physical fitness opportunity as well as a healthy living seminar. Youth will learn new and creative ways to stay active and make healthy lifestyle choices.

April 2020, Month of the Military Child Celebration, TBD

INARNG Youth Program will host a variety of MOMC events to cover military families in all parts of the state. Events may range from physical fitness workshops to family connection events. Youth in attendance will receive a MOMC swag bag and Spring Break Mailer Kit.

April 2020, Month of the Military Child Ball, TBD

INARNG Youth Program will host a MOMC Ball in partnership with Army Reserve Family Programs. Attendees will have the opportunity to dress in formal wear and attend a ball for the recognition of military youth.

April 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Pre-Deployment), TBD

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

April 2020, Yellow Ribbon (During), Gary, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

April 2020 – Q2 Robotics Roadshow, Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators partner with D.o.D. Starbase Indianapolis to host a STEM workshop for military youth aged 8-14. This workshop occurs during Month of the Military Child and will have a military youth appreciation focus. Participants who successfully complete the workshop will receive a MOMC swag bag.

Monday April 6, 2020 – Friday, April 10, 2020, Smoky Mountains, Tennessee

Military youth aged 13-17 have the opportunity to attend the Youth Program Spring Break Trip. This year we will be going to the Smoky Mountains! A week full of leadership training, life skills (camping/water rafting!!) and connectedness with other military teens. This is a FREE trip and the only money required will be your personal spending money. Stay tuned for additional information for include registration information.

Saturday, April 18, 2020 – Q3 Teen Council Meeting, Location TBD

Teens will meet for the day to continue planning for Teen Summit and begin recruiting participants to attend. Teens will reflect on their anti-bullying campaign and how things have gone over the year. In addition to Teen Summit planning, Teens will also be preparing a Be Gone Bullies Workshop to present at Kids AT 2020.

Friday, May 22 – Sunday, May 24, 2020 – FY20 Teen Summit, Location TBD

Teens will meet for the weekend to execute their Teen Summit. Military teens across the state are invited to this leadership summit where teen council members will be responsible for all workshops and activities at Teen Summit. Teens may request to have instructors come in for activities of their choice. Teens will finalize their Be Gone Bullies Workshop for Kids AT.

May 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Reunion), Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

May 2020, Q3 Health and Wellness Workshop, Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators partner with local fitness center to provide youth a physical fitness opportunity as well as a healthy living seminar. Youth will learn new and creative ways to stay active and make healthy lifestyle choices.

Monday, June 8 – Saturday June 13, 2020, Teen Council Summer Forum, DC/Shenandoah/West Virginia

Teen Council members will have the opportunity to attend the Teen Council Summer Forum. The forum will be hosted by a local community partner and executed on the east coast of the country. A week full of leadership training, life skills (camping/water rafting!!) and connectedness among Teen Council members. This is a FREE trip and the only money required will be your personal spending money. Stay tuned for additional information for include registration information.

Saturday & Sunday, June 6-7, 2020, Yellow Ribbon, Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.

Sunday, June 28 – Friday July 3 – Kids AT South

Military youth aged 9-17 may attend a week long military themed summer camp. Attendees will be placed in platoons for the week and engage in traditional camp activities such as swimming, rifle, archery and large group games.

Sunday July 19 – Friday July 24 – Kids AT North

Military youth aged 9-17 may attend a week long military themed summer camp. Attendees will be placed in platoons for the week and engage in traditional camp activities such as swimming, rifle, archery and large group games.

Saturday, August 22, 2020 – Q4 Teen Council Meeting, Location TBD

Last meeting of the year! Teens will come together to reflect on their year and celebrate their year of leadership. We will make plans for the following fiscal year.

August 2020, Q4 Health and Wellness Workshop, Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators partner with local fitness center to provide youth a physical fitness opportunity as well as a healthy living seminar. Youth will learn new and creative ways to stay active and make healthy lifestyle choices.

August 2020 – Q4 Robotics Roadshow, Indianapolis, IN

Youth Coordinators partner with D.o.D. Starbase Indianapolis to host a STEM workshop for military youth aged 8-14. Participants who successfully complete the workshop will receive a STEM swag bag.

August 2020, Back to School Kick-Off, Indianapolis, IN Youth Coordinators partner with local baseball team to provide a back to school night for military youth and families. Attendees will receive school resources, learn the components of baseball Youth Programs swag bag and have the opportunity to stay overnight on the baseball field with movies and snacks.

September 2020, Yellow Ribbon (Reunion), Gary, IN

Youth Coordinators will provide deployment training to youth in attendance. Activities will be based off of phase in deployment cycle. Youth Coordinators will brief soldiers and family members in attendance on the services provided by the Child Youth Program.