

TEXAS

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD FUN FACTS!

- The Texas National Guard traces its roots to 1823, when Stephen F. Austin organized a militia to protect settlers—13 years before Texas became a state in 1845.
- Texas has one of the largest National Guard forces in the country, with over 20,000 soldiers and airmen serving at any given time.
- After World War II, Texas became home to the 49th Armored Division, one of only a few National Guard armored divisions ever formed.
