INSPIRED BY YOUR LIFE

Medallion®

a thriving legacy

For generations, our skilled artisans have crafted each Medallion cabinet by hand. We always seek out the highest quality wood products for our cabinetry, and know that the best timber is found in carefully managed, flourishing forests here in the United States. By choosing Medallion, you are joining an endeavor to protect our environment for the next generation and bringing the beauty of America's natural treasures to your home. Our family's experienced craftsmanship ensures that your Medallion cabinets will see many years of memorable family moments.

Materials and Resources and Regional Materials.

Planting season in this northern California forest is sustainably managed by the Michigan-California Timber Company, our primary timber supplier.

By partnering with ecologists, forestry experts, and wildlife biologists, we cultivate hundreds of acres of forestland across the country, replacing every tree harvested with two new seedlings.

spaces

A well-designed space includes organization tailored to your lifestyle. Small details like a spice drawer exactly where you need it or a creative use for space that would have been wasted make your kitchen more than just smart—it becomes a peaceful haven. And with multiple options for each storage type, you choose how you want to organize your kitchen. We've defined key spaces to inspire you and to illustrate your options. Inside, walk through essential zones in the home and see how Medallion's space solutions complement each other and make the most of every inch of your cabinetry.

SECRET STORAGE SPACE

There's a whole world of storage hidden in plain sight—this walk-in pantry cabinet perfectly blends into the rest of the cabinetry, creating an unseen nook for storage, preparation, or just a moment of retreat.

ORGANIZE |

Pull-out shelving makes the most of every inch with one central location for spices, sauces, or other small items. Find an option for every layout with narrow vertical racks, base pull-outs and more.

See more ways to organize spices on page 9 and 14.

DECLUTTER | Choose the best place to store your knives: a dedicated drawer or a specialized pull-out like this one.

DECLUTTER | Keep electronics off counters with a dedicated charging station and keep long kitchen items tidy with an adjustable shallow drawer divider.

ORGANIZE | High cabinets are easily accessible with a pull-down shelf or one that swings out from above the refrigerator. And a unique cookware organizer pull-out makes it easy to select the size you need without setting off an avalanche of lids.

DISPLAY | Highlight special spice mixes or exotic cooking oils with floating shelves that flank the range hood. Oil-rubbed bronze Catania accent doors add edginess and show the cabinet's contents.

HEIRLOOMS ON EXHIBIT

Showcase the antique china handed down from your great-grandparents or the artisan pottery pieces you've begun to collect, right in the heart of your home. Contrasting shiplap planks draw attention to treasures old and new.

CLEAN | A three-bin waste system gives you a place for compost, recycling, and garbage in one cabinet with a width that perfectly balances a paneled dishwasher on the other side of the sink. A concealed second drawer stores both trash bags and plastic bags, so you can cut up fruit, bag it, and throw away trimmings in one easy station.

SIMMER WITH SPICE

This cooking corner puts everything in reach whether you're baking or sautéing. Include a specialized drawer organizer, arranged with your frequently-used items in mind, and quickly select a dish, napkin, or pitcher from the open shelves.

PREP/COOK | A tiered spice drawer between the range and ovens makes it easy to find the paprika, and a divider tray makes space for other key utensils.

ESPRESSO AND DESSERT

Brew rich cups of coffee as the finale of your dinner party with all the elements you need right at your fingertips. Cabinets built to beautifully organize serving ware make entertaining effortless; this smart storage base creates a place for everything. Guests will admire the elegance of furniture-look pieces like this one-of-a-kind hutch, while you'll appreciate all the useful function they provide.

ENTERTAIN | A two-tiered drawer puts fresh napkins and extra dessert plates right in the heart of the party while maintaining the clean look of one deep drawer.

A convenient way to keep like items together in a seamless look—see more storage ideas for tiered hidden drawers on pages 13, 14, 17 and 21.

SERVE | Built just for Platinum, this lazy susan corner cabinet has a door that travels with the shelves inside. It spins right back to close and blends in with your other inset cabinetry.

ROOM FOR NEW RECIPES

Test out new flavors or give family baking lessons with cabinets set up to get you started quickly. Shelves hold all the essentials, doors tuck in neatly, and the whole cabinet sits right at the counter height for a simple transition from preparation to putting it all away.

BAKE | Keep pans and cookie sheets clearly divided and easy-to-access for last-minute brownie bakes. Measuring cups and more live right underneath, and a drawer liner minimizes rattling and clattering.

A PLACE FOR EVERYTHING

In a well-ordered kitchen, cooking becomes culinary art. Keep essential appliances at your fingertips while concealing them behind beautiful and tidy cabinet doors.

SERVE | Storing dishes down below with peg dividers means that even the smallest family members can easily help set the table. A tiered cutlery divider makes room for both everyday flatware and special occasion serving utensils in one location.

More utensil organization ideas on page 19.

BAKE | Create a cabinet based on the way you cook. Organize all your baking trays, mixing bowls, and hot pads in one place with a custom piece.

A convenient way to keep like items together in a seamless look—see more storage ideas for tiered hidden drawers on pages 10, 13, 17 and 21.

PREP | Conceal both mixing dishes and cleaning cloths in two drawers that look like one.

COOK | Keep seasonings close to the skillet in understated square drawers.

See pages 6 and 9 for more spice storage ideas.

SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

For a busy household, a multipurpose space just steps from the kitchen is the perfect way to enjoy life together. Play games, read, showcase décor, catch up with homework, or eat a quick bite—no matter what scheduling differences your family has, this space fits everyone's needs.

ORGANIZE | Tuck spare books or linens away underneath the bench seating.

CATCH UP AND COOK

Friends and family will flock to a centralized island—the extension of a table makes room for plenty of helpers for Thanksgiving dinner or baking lessons. And while an apple pie is in progress, there's still plenty of space for a cup of spiced cider and conversation.

create space

PREP | From spices to starches, lidded bins, tiered drawers, and movable dividers keep everything in place and put ingredients right in reach. And when it's time to tidy up, dishcloths are tucked right into the top tier.

WINE AND CHEESE CLUB

Pour a round of cabernet at a bar that makes even casual gatherings feel like Parisian wine-tasting soirées. Ample countertop space makes room for cheese boards and hors d'oeuvres and open shelves display your favorite stemware. Above, mirrored doors add a hint of luxe while concealing kitchen essentials, and beneath, smartly-organized cabinets contain all the ingredients for a memorable gathering.

SERVE | Store corkscrews and bar tools right in the middle of the action so you don't miss a thing while fetching another bottle opener. See more utensil organization on page 14.

ENTERTAIN | Specialized wine racks and adjustable drawer organizers for snacks, dishes, and drink mixers roll easily out in heavy-duty drawers.

AFTER-DINNER DRINKS

Mix aperitifs at an easy-access beverage bar, located right where your guests are. A pull-out work surface creates extra counter space to slice limes, dice mint, or prepare your other signature cocktail garnishes. Utensils and snack dishes are conveniently organized just steps away in the main cooking space.
