

Pasta.

Shaped and dried dough made from "flour" and water and sometimes egg. Dating back to the 400s BCE, historians believe that nomadic travelers brought the noodle to Italy...but not according to my Grandmother! For the next several weeks we are traveling worldwide to experience different pasta dishes. We are excited to share these cultures with you in a space for you to gather with family and friends and fill our room with joy and laughter. We hope you find some unexpected favorites.
