On June 1st TARWF will be hosting a booth at the Tustin Street Fair and Chili Cookoff. Our patriotic themed booth will be staffed with TARWF volunteers to help people register to vote, share information about TARWF and engage with the public. Please contact Becky Grimes at 714-878-6659 to find out more and volunteer for a shift.

Prospective new members are always encouraged to check us out via the TARWF.org website, attending our Happy Hours, and General Meetings. We are in the midst of membership recruitment using the CFRW database to source hard R Republican women, aged 50 and over, and live in our local precincts. Program Report

More than one club member has mentioned to me that our April speaker, Carlos Rodrigues, certainly sparked a level of engagement and desire for involvement with regard to the current South Coast AQMD challenge on the hand.

That's exactly the purpose of inviting speakers that can inform and engage us at the local level to speak out. Information from him about the next steps will be forthcoming and shared in order for us to have a voice on this upcoming matter.

Moving forward our speaker for May, Sheriff Don Barnes, promises to complete the circle of our "WASHINGTON-SACRAMENTO-ORANGE COUNTY" levels of education.

Sherriff Barnes has one of the largest law enforcement agencies, protecting over three million people. Impacting issues such as drug trafficking, initiative-taking crime prevention, school safety and operating the nations best jail system to name a few areas.

This is a wonderful opportunity to hear fist hand what is working and what we can do to stay involved and informed.

We all agree that engagement at the local level is where our control begins. Why not take this opportunity to invite friends who are concerned and might want to get involved?

And just a note, although this is our last meeting until the fall, be assured that our Happy Hours will continue throughout the summer months.

Let's keep our November momentum going full speed!

Happy May, Everyone!

With warmer days bringing new growth into our gardens, it seems there is also a new burst of energy in our lives that is affecting us all. And with it, an increased pride in our country—pride in our president for all he has done in such a short time, and for Pope Leo XIV, the first American Pope in history! It certainly is “USA” all the way these days!

Our last luncheon meeting before we break for the summer is just around the corner, on Friday, May 30! (We will resume our luncheons on Friday, September 26.) John Richard Bruns

Private First Class

United States Marine Corps, Active Reservist

Born July 21, 1931

Killed in Action September 20, 1951

Korean War

John Richard Bruns, son of John and Flora Pritchett Bruns, was born July 21, 1931 in Orange County, California. He lived on his family's farm in Tustin at the corner of Red Hill Ave. and Irvine Blvd. He was a native Tustinite, attending school from Kindergarten through high school, being a member of the Tustin High Class of 1949. He played football and was known as a fun-loving guy with the blondest hair. He was high school ASB president and member of the Tustin Class of 1949. People remember him riding his horse in his favorite spot, Peters Canyon, not far from where a street bears his name. He was an only child, but chose to waive his right to stay out of the war zone. On Nov 10, 1950, he married his high school sweetheart, Roberta Cooney. He was 20, she was 17. Ten days after marrying, he enlisted into the Marine Corps.

After boot camp, he was assigned to the Weapons Company, 1st Battalion, 1st Marine, 1st Marines Division while serving as an 81 mm Mortar Operator during the Korean War. On a bright day at noon, he was crossing a rice paddy when he was struck by enemy mortar. He had just turned 21 years old.

Upon his death, John Bruns was awarded the Purple Heart, the Combat Action Ribbon, the Korean Service Medal, The US Service Medal, the National Defense Medal, the Korean Presidential Unit Citation, and the Republic of Korea Service Medal. PFC Bruns was buried at Fairhaven Memorial Park.

Cecil "Duke" Suddaby Red Hill Volunteer Fire Dept. Chief

On October 7, 1948, sixteen men gathered to organize Tustin's very first fire department. The organization was known as the Red Hill Voluntary Fire Department, later renamed the Red Hill Volunteer Fire Department. One of the original charter members was Cecil "Duke" Suddaby.

Duke Suddaby came to Tustin as a three-year-old child in 1910. The son and only child of William "Sam" Suddaby and Margaret Sauers. Duke was born in Beemer, Nebraska on April 19, 1907.

Sam Suddaby became the president of the newly formed Smart and Final Wholesale Grocery Company. Sam's family home was at 405 W. Main Street in Tustin.

Duke Suddaby attended Tustin Grammar School and Tustin High School, where he graduated in 1927. While at both schools, he played baseball, including on the championship team of 1926.

(Duke is in the top right corner in both photos)

He married his high school classmate Doris Messinger in 1932, and they became the parents of three children. The family home was at the corner of Newport and First Street (at the present site of US Bank). When the City of Tustin decided to expand First Street from Newport Avenue to Red Hill Avenue, the family farm was lost. The Suddaby family moved to La Cuesta Drive in North Tustin.

Duke was very involved in the Tustin community as a rancher, manager of the Tustin Citrus Association, School Board Trustee, on the board of the Tustin Heights Water Company, the Orange County Grand Jury, Saddleback Bank, and the Chief of the Red Hill Volunteer Fire Department.

Duke passed away in 1992 and is buried at Fairhaven Cemetery in Santa Ana.

From TARWF member Lana Clay:

Local Politics Update: Tustin Council Votes to Refund Housing Fees

Last month, the Tustin City Council voted 4–1 to refund nearly $290,000 in affordable housing in-lieu fees to Intracorp, the developer behind the now-canceled Jessup townhome project in Old Town.

A Quick Recap:

- Intracorp proposed building 40 luxury townhomes.
- Rather than include affordable units onsite, they opted to pay an in-lieu fee which is an option available under Tustin's Voluntary Workforce Housing Incentive Program.
- The project did not move forward, and Intracorp requested a refund, citing the program's failure to produce any affordable units.

What Was the Original Intent?

The incentive program was designed to give developers flexibility. Either build affordable housing or pay into a city-run fund that would support those efforts elsewhere. The goal was to preserve community access in areas like Old Town, where rising prices threaten to displace longtime residents.

State Requirements at a Glance:

Tustin is required by state law to add around approximately 3k housing units between 2021–2029, with around 1.2k reserved for very-low, low, and moderate-income households. The City's 6th Cycle Housing Plan includes various strategies, such as inclusionary zoning and in-lieu fees, to meet this target.

The Bigger Picture:

California continues to face a housing crisis. With over 180,000 people unhoused and fewer than 1 in 5 residents able to afford a median-priced home, the state is grappling with serious challenges (HUD 2024).

A Conservative Take:

Affordable housing is a complex issue that should be addressed in ways that uphold personal responsibility, strengthen families, and support community investment. Conservative approaches often emphasize local control, smart planning, and efficient use of public funds. As cities navigate how to meet state mandates and encourage development, it's important to ensure programs are transparent, results-driven, and aligned with long-term community goals.

Onward,

Dr. Lana Clay, Ed.D, MBS, MSHS; HPE, CHE
