Program Report

It's been a rather rapid election season and mid-term elections are fast approaching us on June 7th. Sample ballots and the Official Voter Information should have arrived to you weeks ago, and the Official Mail In Ballot should be in your mailbox any day. Please keep an eye out for that ballot and safeguard it to not fall into the wrong hands. Should you receive more than one ballot in the mail, please report it to our Registrar of Voters. Better yet, you can return it to that office, which is right around the corner from our meeting location at the Elks Lodge. Should you not receive a mail in ballot in the next week or so, report that to the Registrar's office as well. And, if you know someone that is not registered to vote, encourage them to register no later than May 23rd to be able to vote in this primary election. If you have any questions regarding Registering to Vote or about voting in general, please give one of our Board members a call. A lot of information can be found on OCVote.com, which is a preferable site to the State website found in the voter guide.

Our goal is to educate you on the issues and bring the candidates to you so you can make informed, intelligent decisions when filling out your ballot. I would like to suggest you bring your sample ballot with you to the next meeting to mark up and make notes on as the Candidates are speaking.

At our TARWF meeting this month we are focusing on bringing to you as many of the Statewide Candidates as possible, as well as some more of our judicial Candidates. We have worked hard to contact and confirm the many Candidates that have chosen to run this cycle. The Candidates that have confirmed at this point include but are not limited to:

For Governor, Shawn Collins, Leo Zacky, Daniel Mercuri and David Lozano

For Senator, Mark Meuser

For Attorney General, Nathan Hochman and Eric Early

Other confirmations to follow.

I look forward to seeing you all on May 27th for our last meeting before the Primary and the Summer break. Bring your friends for a most informative meeting.

Linda Barcelona, 1st VP Programs

City of Tustin History

Donna Peery, Office Manager, and Steve Sauers, President, from the Tustin Historical Society have agreed to contribute articles for our newsletter regarding Tustin history and Tustin armed forces service personnel.

Tustin has always been proud of its rich military beginnings, but did you know that among the brave men and women that called Tustin home are three Medal of Honor recipients?

James H. Brown was just 17 years old when he enlisted into the 2nd Maine Infantry Regiment in September 1862. He served in that unit, in guarding the Capital and in Virginia, until 1863. When his service was complete, he re-enlisted into the 2nd Maine Calvary. His unit was sent to Pensacola, Florida and transferred to the Navy, serving as a gunner's mate on the USS Manhattan, under Admiral Farragut of the "Damn the torpedoes, full speed ahead!" fame. The USS Manhattan captured the Confederate ironclad Tennessee at the Battle of Mobile Bay. When James Brown left the service, he was 25 years of age. He settled in Tustin prior to 1892 and passed away at age 90 in 1935.

Nelson M Holderman is considered by many to be the most decorated soldier of World War I. A young Nelson came to Tustin, with his parents, in 1893. He attended Tustin Grammar School and began his military career in 1916 with Santa Ana's National Guard Unit. Company L. In 1918, Company L was sent to France and the Argonne Forest. Capt. Holderman became part of the Lost Battalion after being cut off and surrounded by the enemy for 5 days. Capt. Holderman was wounded three times on three days yet continued to lead his men. After returning to Tustin and the National Guard, Holderman was promoted to Colonel and became head of the Yountville Soldier's Home in Yountville, California. He passed away in 1953.

William Jerome came to the United States from his native England to Philadelphia, where he enlisted into the Pennsylvania 1st Calvary during the Civil War. Although we are still completing his biography and verifying information, Jerome served in Company G, US Calvary and was involved with fighting Indians in the Chiricahua Mountains. William Jerome came to Tustin in 1881, where he served as the first Constable of Tustin, a Los Angeles Policeman and plasterer. He dropped dead of a heart attack while building Tustin's first sidewalk in front of the Utt Store in August 1900.

Archibald Stuart Ralph moved to Orange County in 1912 from Michigan.

At the start of World War 1, he organized the 76th Company of the California Military Reserve and commissioned into the United States Army, rising to the rank of Major.

After the war, he returned to Tustin and purchased 40 acres of land on Irvine Blvd from his friend James Irvine. He planted citrus trees, built stables and developed the property into an income producing property. At the same time, he started the A.S. Ralph Automobile Insurance Company, which became part of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

In 1929, he built a beautiful Spanish Colonial Revival House on Irvine Blvd. for his second wife, Louise. She was very prominent in horse show circles and they employed a full time horse trainer/groom for their 9 stables located on the property. Mr. Ralph closed his insurance business office in Santa Ana in 1930 and continued to run the business from his home until he passed away in 1937.

Louise Ralph maintained the 40 acre property until 1962, when she sold the property to a developer to build a housing tract. The original house still stands today as part of the La Jolla Business Plaza.
