<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Return to Conservative Water Policy</li> </ul>	✓	Measured-water policy was implemented based on regulated 6-month allocation to slow growth and enable alignment of public safety services.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Slow down out-of-control growth</li> </ul>	✓	Building permits down 40.7% in 2022 (226 permits) vs. 2021 (381 permits). Dollar value of 2022 residential permits is up 22.5%.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Put Prescott first, not developers</li> </ul>	✓	Every decision considers: Does it have to be done? Must it be done now? What will it cost? Does it benefit the city at large or just special interests? Refused any developer campaign money, always will.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Study and fix city traffic issues</li> </ul>	✓	Directed Police Chief to focus on moving violation enforcement. Completed traffic image capture on Willow Creek Road to enable traffic light sequencing.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Full-time mayor, no conflicts of interest</li> </ul>	✓	Works on average 50 hours/week for Prescott. ZERO conflicts of interest.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Restore transparent city government</li> <li>• Listen to and consider your concerns</li> </ul>	✓	Established “Open Call to the Public” at council meetings, citizens can comment on any topic. Maintains Open Door policy. Frequently appears at city groups and organizations. Weekly video updates.
